Literature, Modernism, and Dance Susan Jones, 2013-08-01 This book explores the complex relationship between literature and dance in the era of modernism During this period an unprecedented dialogue between the two art forms took place based on a common aesthetics initiated by contemporary discussions of the body and gender language formal experimentation primitivism anthropology and modern technologies such as photography film and mechanisation The book traces the origins of this relationship to the philosophical antecedents of modernism in the nineteenth century and examines experimentation in both art forms The book investigates dance s impact on the modernists critique of language and shows the importance to writers of choreographic innovations by dancers of the fin de si cle of the Ballets Russes and of European and American experimentalists in non balletic forms of modern dance A reciprocal relationship occurs with choreographic use of literary text Dance and literature meet at this time at the site of formal experiments in narrative drama and poetics and their relationship contributes to common aesthetic modes such as symbolism primitivism expressionism and constructivism Focussing on the first half of the twentieth century the book locates these transactions in a transatlantic field giving weight to both European and American contexts and illustrating the importance of dance as a conduit of modernist preoccupations in Europe and the US through patterns of influence and exchange Chapters explore the close interrelationships of writers and choreographers of this period including Mallarm Nietzsche Yeats Conrad Woolf Lawrence Pound Eliot and Beckett Fuller Duncan Fokine Nijinsky Massine Nijinska Balanchine Tudor Laban Wigman Graham and Humphrey and recover radical experiments by neglected writers and choreographers from David Garnett and Esther Forbes to Andr e Howard and Oskar Schlemmer

The Hong Kong Modernism of Leung Ping-kwan C. T. Au, 2019-11-29 This book resolves around the fundamental question What is Hong Kong modernism To address this issue C T Au identifies three significant characteristics a renewal of traditions an obsession with ordinary things and an expression of concerns about social and political issues shared among Western modernisms Chinese modernism in the 1940s and such Hong Kong modernists as Ma Lang Liu Yichang and Leung Ping kwan Yasi Ye Si This research concentrates on an examination of the major modernist tenets embodied in Leung s literary works Leung Ping kwan is one of the most prominent and widely read Hong Kong modernist writers however there exist only a few scholarly works which focus on the direct relationship between

Leung's works and modernisms The author argues that Leung paid special attention to issues regarding tradition daily life and colonial culture in order to understand his past his identity and the unique features of Hong Kong modernism which celebrate multiple perspectives and inclusiveness This study not only helps differentiate Hong Kong modernism from other modernisms positioning the former as a variant of the latter but also provides a response to the problems evoked by Hong Kong's colonial milieu

European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2006-06-15 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism is an anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of recent European literature Each chapter is devoted to one particular school of movement from within the broad body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism though to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s and the more recent initiative of postmodernism These texts are approached both on their own terms as individual formulations of the goals and procedures literary aesthetic and political that characterized the work of these writers and as key documents of the literary school or movement to which these writers belonged

Modernism Astradur Eysteinsson, Vivian Liska, 2007-10-04 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity

Understanding Deleuze, Understanding Modernism Paul Ardoin, S. E. Gontarski, Laci Mattison, 2014-08-28 Understanding Deleuze Understanding Modernism explores the multi faceted and formative impact of Gilles Deleuze on the development and our understanding of modernist thought in its philosophical literary and more broadly cultural manifestations Gilles Deleuze himself rethought philosophical history with a series of books and essays on individual philosophers such as Kant Spinoza Leibniz Nietzsche and Bergson and authors such as Proust Kafka Beckett and Woolf on the one hand and Bacon Messiaen and Pollock among others in other arts This volume acknowledges Deleuze's profound impact on a century of art and thought and the origin of that impact in his own understanding of modernism Understanding Deleuze Understanding Modernism begins by conceptualizing Deleuze by offering close readings of some of his most important works The contributors offer new readings that illuminate the context of Deleuze's work either by reading one of Deleuze's texts against or in the context of his entire body of work or by challenging Deleuze's readings of other philosophers. A central section on Deleuze and his aesthetics maps the relationships between Deleuze's thought and modernist literature. The volume's final section features an extended glossary of Deleuze's key terms with each definition having its own expert contributor.
