Munter, 2013-08-27 For anyone who has to make presentations A brief professional reader friendly guide to creating effective presentations Many people avoid giving presentations or simply suffer through them Guide to Presentations with its clear concise and practical information helps readers understand how to prepare and practice in order to make presentations far less troubling Guide to Presentations Munter Mary, 2002 Guide to PowerPoint Mary Munter, Dave Paradi, 2007 Power Points skills are becoming increasingly important to student success in the classroom as well as in finding and keeping a job This book provides a guide to the technical aspects of creating a Power Point presentation as well as showing students how to properly design a Power Point presentation Students can use this guide throughout their college career and as they enter the professional world A concise professional and readable guide to how to what to do to create Power Points and how to best put them together Any student who uses Power Points in the classroom or business professionals who need a crash course on Power Point Guide de la communication écrite en anglais Sandra Thibadeau, 2008 Le Guide de la communication écrite en anglais comprend plus de 90 tableaux couvrant la majorité des difficultés de rédaction L'information présentée en anglais est enrichie de notes complémentaires en français qui mettent en lumière les particularités de la langue et signalent les exceptions Il s'agit de l'outil idéal pour rédiger et mettre en forme des communications de nature professionnelle ou universitaire Communicative Practices in Workplaces and the Professions Mark Zachry, Charlotte Thralls, 2017-03-02 Bringing together prominent scholars from a variety of disciplines Communicative Practices in Workplaces and the Professions Cultural Perspectives on the Regulation of Discourse and Organizations offers readers an engaging set of essays on the complicated relationship between discourse and the many institutions within which people act Each author brings a unique theoretical perspective to conceptualizing how discourse is regulated and how it regulates when human activity is organized for such purposes as work or belonging to a profession Together the contributors to this collection offer a provocatively complex picture of what regulation means and the means of regulation Communicate with Mastery JD Schramm, 2020-01-22 Develop your leadership communication Communicating with Mastery provides readers with a rich treasure trove of frameworks and tools for leadership communication as developed and taught over the past decade at Stanford's Graduate School of Business. Designed for the business leader on the go, it provides you quick access to helpful approaches to vexing communication problems leaders face today in speaking and writing to various audiences. Projects often fail not because of the vision but in the articulation of that vision. With the help of this book, you'll learn how to ensure you get the results you desire as a leader and communicator including: Speak with conviction and write with impact. Tailor your communication to any goal setting or audience. Scale your leadership through effective coaching. Every time you write or speak, you need to make your words count. And this book shows you how.

Persuading with Data Miro Kazakoff, 2022-03-29. An integrated introduction to data visualization, strategic communication, and delivery best practices. Persuading with Data provides an integrated instructional guide to data visualization, strategic communication, and delivery best practices. Most books on data visualization focus on creating good graphs. This is the first book that combines both explanatory visualization and communication strategy, showing how to use visuals to create effective communications that convince an audience to accept and act on the data. In four parts that proceed from micro to macro, the book explains how our brains make sense of graphs, how to design effective graphs and slides that support your ideas, how to organize those ideas into a compelling presentation, and how to deliver and defend data to an audience. Persuading with Data is for anyone who has to explain analytical results to others. It synthesizes a wide range of skills needed by modern data professionals, providing a complete toolkit for creating effective business communications. Readers will learn how to simplify in order to amplify, how to communicate data analysis, how to prepare for audience resistance, and much more. The book integrates practitioner and academic perspectives with real-world examples from a variety of industries, organizations, and disciplines. It is accessible to a wide range of readers, from undergraduates to mid-career and executive-level professionals, and has been tested in settings that include academic classes and workplace training sessions.

Effective Fire and Emergency Services Administration Robert S. Fleming, 2010-04-21. Dr. Fleming's new book, drawing from an array of business and administrative disciplines, provides a solid conceptual foundation for understanding, meeting, and exceeding the expectations of organizational stakeholders and preparing for professional, personal, and organizational success in fire administration. The book addresses the various course objectives and learning outcomes for both the Introduction to Fire and Emergency Services Administration course within the FESHE Associate's Model Curriculum and the corresponding bachelor's course, Fire and Emergency Services Administration. Effective Fire and Emergency Services Administration will be an invaluable resource for students, both undergraduate and graduate, and current fire and emergency services personnel of all ranks who are preparing for career advancement, including promotional examinations. It also will serve as a very useful reference for current fire and emergency service operational and administrative officers.
