Guerin, 1969 A Handbook of Critical Approaches to Literature Wilfred L. Guerin, 1979 Now in its fourth edition A Handbook of Critical Approaches to Literature has become a standard introduction to the close reading of literature It offers students and other readers a variety of ways to interpret a piece of literature ranging from traditional approaches through the formalist the psychological the mythic and archetypal and into such contemporary approaches as feminist criticism and cultural studies Applying these diverse approaches to the same five works the book shows students how various methods offer different insights enriching their response to and understanding of the individual work This fourth edition features a new chapter on cultural studies and the inclusion and interpretation of Alice Walker s singularly rich short story Everyday Use A Handbook of Critical Approaches to Literature, 1992 A Handbook of Critical Approaches to Literature Anuj K. Du Bois's fictionalization of history in his five major works of fiction and in his debut short story The Souls of Black Folk through a thematic framework of cosmopolitanism In texts like The Negro and Black Folk Then and Now Du Bois argues that the human race originated from a single source a claim authenticated by anthropologists and the Human Genome Project This book breaks new ground by demonstrating the fashion in which the variants of cosmopolitanism become a profound theme in Du Bois's contribution to fiction In general cosmopolitanism claims that people belong to a single community informed by common moral values function through a shared economic nomenclature and are part of political systems grounded in mutual respect This book addresses Du Bois's works as important additions to the academy and makes a significant contribution to literature by first demonstrating the way in which fiction could be utilized in discussing historical accounts in order to reach a global audience The Coming of John The Quest of the Silver Fleece Dark Princess A Romance and The Black Flame an important trilogy published sequentially as The Ordeal of Mansart Mansart Builds a School and Worlds of Color are grounded in historical occurrences and administer as social histories providing commentary on Reconstruction Jim Crow segregation African American leadership school desegregation the Pan African movement imperialism and colonialism in Africa Asia and the Caribbean A Handbook of Critical Approaches to Literature L. The Perceptive Process: a Introductory Guide to Literary Criticism , Tribals, Empire and God Zhodi

Angami, 2017-04-06 Tribal biblical interpretation is a developing area of study that is concerned with reading the Bible through the eyes of tribal people While many studies of reading the Bible from the reader's social cultural and historical location have been made in various parts of the world no thorough study that offers a coherent and substantive methodology for tribal biblical interpretation has been made This book is the first comprehensive work that offers a description of tribal biblical interpretation and shows its application by making a lucid reading of Matthew's infancy narrative from a tribal reader's perspective Using reader response criticism as his primary method Zhodi Angami brings his tribal context of North East India into conversation with Matthew's account of the birth of Jesus Since tribal people of North East India see themselves as living under colonial rule a tribal reader sees Matthew's text as a narrative that actively resists and subverts imperial rule Likewise the tribal experience of living at the margins inspires a tribal reader to look at the narrative from the underside from the perspective of those who are sidelined ignored belittled or forgotten Tribal biblical interpretation presented here follows a process of conversation between tribal worldview and Matthew's narrative Such a method animates the text for the tribal reader and makes the biblical narrative not only more intelligible to the tribal reader but allows the text to speak directly to the tribal context
