communication psychology Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21

Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences. But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field. This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research, how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines, and where it may be headed in the future. The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks, strategies of inquiry, and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism, making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein.

Disciplines, Disasters and Emergency Management David A. McEntire, 2007

Disasters such as the 9/11 terrorist attacks, the Indian Ocean Tsunami, and Hurricane Katrina illustrate the salience and complexity of disasters. Both scholars and practitioners therefore agree that we must take a more proactive and holistic approach to emergency management, which should logically be derived from a sound understanding of the academic literature and the most pressing concerns facing professionals in the field today. Disciplines, Disasters and Emergency Management reviews what is known about catastrophic events from the standpoint of various academic areas of study.

Managerial Competence Within the Hospitality and Tourism Service Industries, Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships Anita L. Vangelisti, 2009-07-31

Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships presents a synthesis of cutting edge research and theory on hurt. Being hurt is an inevitable part of close relationships. What varies from relationship to relationship is not whether partners hurt each other, but how their relationship is affected by hurtful episodes. Given the potential influence of hurt feelings on people's interpersonal relationships, it is not surprising that scholars have begun to study the antecedents, processes, and outcomes associated with hurt. This collection integrates the various issues addressed by researchers, theorists, and practitioners who study the causes of hurt feelings, the interpersonal events associated with hurt, and the ways people respond to hurting and being hurt by others. To capture the breadth and depth of the literature in this area, the work of scholars from a variety of disciplines, including social psychology, communication, sociology, and family studies, is highlighted.
