A. Francis,1964 The Australian Journal ,1889 Writing for Life Primary English Teaching Association (Australia),1988 In recent years thee has been renewed interest in writing in the primary schools and the process approach has made a big impact on children and their teachers Yet are we making the most of this approach Is there not a risk that process writing will just be identified with story writing and forfeit its potential for writing in all areas of the curriculum Are our children learning to use the different kinds of writing that they will need in the course of their education and their lives The contributors to this book who include several practising teachers argue that children should be taught how to write in the various genres or kinds of writing that are needed Drawing on their own experiences they show how teachers can develop their teaching of writing to realise the full potential of the process approach and at the same time maintain its vitality
