The Autism Matrix Gil Eyal, 2013-08-26 Today autism has become highly visible Once you begin to look for it you realize it is everywhere Why We all know the answer or think we do there is an autism epidemic And if it is an epidemic then we know what must be done lots of money must be thrown at it detection centers must be established and explanations sought so that the number of new cases can be brought down and the epidemic brought under control But can it really be so simple This major new book offers a very different interpretation The authors argue that the recent rise in autism should be understood an aftershock of the real earthquake which was the deinstitutionalization of mental retardation in the mid 1970s This entailed a radical transformation not only of the institutional matrix for dealing with developmental disorders of childhood but also of the cultural lens through which we view them It opened up a space for viewing and treating childhood disorders as neither mental illness nor mental retardation neither curable nor incurable but somewhere in between The authors show that where deinstitutionalization went the furthest as in Scandinavia UK and the blue states of the US autism rates are also highest Where it was absent or delayed as in France autism rates are low Combining a historical narrative with international comparison The Autism Matrix offers a fresh and powerful analysis of a condition that affects many parents and children today

The Politics of Autism Dr. Bryna Siegel, 2018-08-01 The Politics of Autism is a forthright appraisal of controversies behind reports of rising autism prevalence and methods of its diagnosis the need for a sea change in autism education the anti vaccine movement and unproven homeopathies and of autism research priorities It provides guidelines for policy changes and changes to clinical practice with the goal of improving the lives of individuals and their families living with autism

How Parents Deal with the Education of Their Child on the Autism Spectrum Jasmine McDonald, 2014-11-26 Powerful moral social justice and political arguments have convinced parents that it is their democratic right to place their children on the autism spectrum into mainstream educational environments so that their children may eventually take up their rightful place in a mainstream adult life But what is really happening for some of these parents when they try to gain and maintain an appropriate education for their child in these mainstream contexts and beyond What is the educational experience like for these families who are in the midst of this generational change from historical exclusion to inclusion Current research indicates that while islands of excellent mainstream inclusive practice do exist the educational experience for many students on the autism spectrum can often be one of hostility inconsistency and unreliability Without appropriate understanding of best practice educational methods these students can present an inordinate educational challenge to both parents and educators alike How do parents deal with such complex educational profiles How do they continue to maximize their children s development over time What are the barriers that hinder their quest What are the facilitators that help their quest To answer these questions this book provides an in depth recent examination of the real life journeys of families who attempted to gain an appropriate education for their children on the autism spectrum including the areas of diagnosis early intervention mainstream schooling home education segregated schooling and transition to work and further study Jasmine McDonald BA DipEd MSpecEd Hons PhD is affiliated with the Telethon Kids Institute University of Western Australia Perth Australia Her current work includes trialling a peer to peer mentoring program for tertiary students on the autism spectrum This program runs at Curtin University in Western Australia and will be replicated and evaluated at the University of Western Australia The results will eventually be shared through the Australian Government Autism Cooperative Research Centre CRC website <http://www.autismcrc.com.au>

Autism's Hidden Blessings Kelly Langston, 2011-06-07 Encouragement and inspiration for special needs families God has a unique and magnificent purpose for every child a purpose that is no less important for special needs children Through the story of her own ongoing struggles and victories raising her autistic son Kelly Langston brings to light God s promises for exceptional kids and highlights covenants that assure special needs parents of their children s potential and beauty Special Education in Contemporary Society, 4e □ Media Edition

Richard M. Gargiulo, 2011-08-26 In the Fourth Edition Media Update of Special Education in Contemporary Society author Richard Gargiulo provides a highly readable and research based introduction to special education This book is based on the author s belief that teachers need more than just academic knowledge about exceptionality they need an awareness and understanding of the human side of students with special needs and their families The Fourth Edition Media Update can be packaged with an Interactive eBook that offers new video clips of educators parents and individuals with special needs talking about their experiences Icons appear throughout the Media Update linking the book to the interactive eBook features

Break the Stigma: Autism Nichole E Scheerer ,April Hargreaves ,Catalina Sau Man Ng ,Matthew Daniel Lerner, 2024-12-17 While awareness of neurodiversity and specific forms of neurodivergence such as autism has increased over the last few years autism stigma and prejudice against autistic people remains a critical issue that warrants further attention and investigation The experience of stigma and prejudice such as discriminatory actions and attitudes towards autistic individuals on both a personal and public level can have many negative impacts across one s lifetime These experiences can lead people on the autism spectrum and their families to avoid seeking help which can delay diagnosis and access to supportive services of not only autism itself but also co occurring physical and psychological health needs Prejudiced beliefs against autistic people may lead to many forms of discrimination including but not limited to medical education and employment discrimination These attitudes can be built into society at a systemic level and influence policies that govern access to supports and our communities Additionally autism stigma and prejudice against autistic people such as stereotypical portrayals of autistic people in media and the language we use to describe autistic people can be invalidating to a person's autistic identity and to autistic culture Further the impacts of stigma and prejudice can be internalized by autistic individuals which may not only have poor effects on their wellbeing but also increase the want and or need to mask or camouflage to pass as non autistic Masking or camouflaging can reduce a person's sense of belonging self esteem sense of self worth and close relationships all of which are associated with poor outcomes It can also lead to avoidance of opportunities such as connection with other autistic individuals that could increase quality of life This Research Topic aims to showcase evidence on why the stigma surrounding autism and the prejudice against autistic people are so detrimental It hopes to provide insights into research and interventions on how stigma and prejudice can be tackled as well as awareness understanding and acceptance raised in the hope that the research presented will translate to best practice applications in clinical public health policy and community settings We invite researchers to submit a range of articles including but not limited to original research articles reviews meta analyses opinions perspectives and case reports to provide new evidence on the following Harmful impacts of stigma and prejudice on autistic people Interventions on reducing stigma surrounding and prejudice against autistic people Health promotion in autism i.e approaches that increase the mental and physical well being of autistic people Interventions targeted at increasing understanding of autism and neurodiversity as well as increasing acceptance and advocacy of as well as allyship with autistic people Examining intersectionality in autism stigma and or prejudice towards autistic people of diverse backgrounds

Stop Autism Now! Bruce Fife, 2017-08-11 Over 1 million people have autism Childhood developmental disabilities of all type is rapidly growing including autism attention deficit hyperactivity disorder ADHD epilepsy mental retardation and others Currently in the United States 4 million children have attention deficit hyperactivity disorder the most common learning disability and an incredible one in six children are classified as learning disabled Why the sudden astronomical rise in developmental disabilities Most doctors have no clue what causes autism nor any idea how to prevent or even treat it The only medically recognized form of treatment is an attempt to teach affected children how to manage the disorder and live with it Antidepressants antipsychotics and stimulants are often prescribed to help cope with symptoms No possibility of a cure is offered as the condition is considered permanent in other words hopeless Autism however is not a hopeless condition It can be prevented and successfully treated without the use of drugs This book describes an innovative new dietary and lifestyle approach that has proven very successful in reversing even some of the most severe developmental disorders allowing once disabled children to enter regular school and lead normal happy productive lives There is a solution You can stop autism now Dr Fife has done an outstanding job on Stop

Autism Now This book gives the latest stats on the pervasiveness of autism spectrum disorder and more importantly viable solutions With food lists and recipes galore Dr Fife makes the diet doable and manageable and worth your effort to try it Carolyn Dean MD ND Author of The Magnesium Miracle Bruce Fife has produced another masterpiece Autism is a subject that I have spent a good deal of time analyzing researching and writing about and no one does a better job condensing and explaining what is known about this terrible disorder than does Doctor Fife His advice designed to treat this disorder is based on good science and practical experience This book will help millions of children who have become a victim of a health policy gone mad Parents should all have this book on their bookshelves and refer to it often Russell L Blaylock M D Author of Excitotoxins The Taste That Kills Theoretical Neurosciences Research LLC Visiting Professor of Biology Belhaven University Jackson Ms Clinical Assistant Professor of Neurosurgery University of Mississippi retired
