Survival Migration Alexander Betts, 2013-07-12 International treaties conventions and organizations to protect refugees were established in the aftermath of World War II to protect people escaping targeted persecution by their own governments However the nature of cross border displacement has transformed dramatically since then Such threats as environmental change food insecurity and generalized violence force massive numbers of people to flee states that are unable or unwilling to ensure their basic rights as do conditions in failed and fragile states that make possible human rights deprivations Because these reasons do not meet the legal understanding of persecution the victims of these circumstances are not usually recognized as refugees preventing current institutions from ensuring their protection In this book Alexander Betts develops the concept of survival migration to highlight the crisis in which these people find themselves Examining flight from three of the most fragile states in Africa Zimbabwe the Democratic Republic of Congo and Somalia Betts explains variation in institutional responses across the neighboring host states There is massive inconsistency Some survival migrants are offered asylum as refugees others are rounded up detained and deported often in brutal conditions The inadequacies of the current refugee regime are a disaster for human rights and gravely threaten international security In Survival Migration Betts outlines these failings illustrates the enormous human suffering that results and argues strongly for an expansion of protected categories representations of human smuggling in mainstream narratives of migration and more With nineteen new contributors the third edition of Global Human Smuggling represents the progress of human smuggling research on every continent and offers a rare research based and conceptual framework for the study of this critical global issue , L'Enjeu mondial - Les migrations Christophe Jaffrelot, Christian Lesquene, 2009-09-27 T00:00:00+02:00 L'accélération de la mondialisation la circulation des capitaux internet et les technologies de communication l'émergence et l'urbanisation des pays du Sud le vieillissement des pays du Nord l'instabilité et les crises politiques mais aussi le changement climatique donnent une ampleur sans précédent aux migrations et aux mobilités humaines qui ne cessent d'augmenter et de se diversifier soulevant de nombreux débats dans les pays de départ comme dans les pays d'accueil Global et massif le phénomène migratoire justifie la recherche de nouvelles formes de gouvernance au niveau mondial L'Enjeu mondial en propose une analyse en cinq volets thématiques 1 l'évolution récente des migrations internationales 2 les migrations internes qu'elles soient libres ou forcées 3 un Sud terre de migrations 4 un Nord entre rejet et immigration 5 et enfin les diasporas et leur utilité pour les pays d'origine Sous la direction de Christophe Jaffrelot et de Christian Lequesne directeur du CERI Centre d'études et de recherches internationales de Sciences Po avec la collaboration des meilleurs spécialistes L'Enjeu mondial se propose d'éclairer l'un des grands enjeux mondiaux contemporains combinant analyses et cartographie inédites Ont contribué à cet ouvrage William Berthoin, Didier Bizio, Jean-Marie Bouissou, David Camroux, Rami Castets, Fred Constant, Anne Daguerre, Dominique Daniel, Chloé Froissart, Jean-Jacques Gabas, François Gemenne, Souley Hassane Bertrand, Hervieu Riva, Kastoryano, Smaïl Laacher, Thomas Lacroix, Emmanuel Ma Mung Kuang, Jean-Baptiste Meyer, Christian Olsson, Sébastien Peyrouse, François Purseigle, Vélyne Ritaine, Daniel Sabbagh, Sylvain Souchaud, Catherine Teitgen-Colly, Ingrid Therwath, Vincent Tiberj, Anne de Tinguy, Michèle Tribalat, Aurelia Wa Kabwe-Segatti, Catherine Wihtol de Wenden, Aristide Zolberg The Challenge of the Threshold Jocelyne Streiff-Fenart, Aurelia Wa Kabwe-Segatti, 2012-01-01 The recent containment policies aimed at regulating immigration flows towards Europe have profoundly altered the dynamics of migration in Africa The impact of these policies is apparent in the redefinitions of the routes itineraries and actors of migration But their effect can also be felt in migrant categories and identities and in the perceptions of migrants in the societies through which they transit or the communities which they have left behind By placing the problem of border control at the very heart of the migration issue the policies aimed at the restriction of migration flows have changed the meaning and significance of migration More than ever before both migrants and institutions in charge of border control construe migration mostly around the challenge of border crossing In the Global South the transit situation in which would-be border jumpers are retained blurs the distinction between temporary migration and settlement This contributes to change in various ways the relationship to strangers from renewed forms of solidarities to the reactivation of latent xenophobic sentiment whether around the Mediterranean or en route towards South Africa the other migration hub on the continent The editors of this volume have decided to work on the notion of threshold as an operative concept for addressing the multiple dimensions of the issue the discursive and conceptual frameworks that constitute the backbone of threshold policies aiming to keep undesirables beyond borders the constitution of stopping places intermediate areas and relay towns which all represent threshold spaces that challenge local urban equilibria and the experience of liminality in which individuals caught for a time between two states as migrant on the road and as immigrant the state to which they aspire experience the typically ambiguous situations characteristic of threshold people Turner While ambitioning to innovate theoretically and methodologically the volume is above all Hometown Transnationalism Thomas Lacroix, 2015-11-09 Collective remittances that is to say development initiatives carried out by immigrant groups for the benefit of their place of origin have been attracting growing attention from both academics and policy makers Focusing on hometown organisations this book analyses the social mechanics that are conducive to collective transnationalism Migrations africaines : le codéveloppement en questions Cris Beauchemin, Lama Kabbanji, Papa Sakho, Bruno Schoumaker, 2013-10-23 Depuis le milieu des années 2000 les débats sur l'immigration en Europe se sont très largement focalisés sur les migrations africaines Pour autant les migrations d'Afrique subsaharienne demeurent largement méconnues et l'engouement dont elles font l'objet est sans mesure avec leur poids statistique En complément du contrôle des frontières le codéveloppement est apparu comme un nouveau dispositif politique associant gestion des migrations et promotion du développement L'ouvrage confronte les attentes des politiques du codéveloppement avec les résultats d'enquêtes observant ainsi les liens entre migrations et développement en Afrique subsaharienne l'examen des politiques fondé sur l'étude des textes officiels européens et africains et sur des entrevues avec des praticiens répond l'analyse des comportements des populations travers l'exploitation d'entretiens menés avec des migrants et surtout l'analyse statistique de données originales collectées dans le cadre du projet Migration entre l'Afrique et l'Europe MAFE Cet ouvrage se présente comme un essai de démographie politique Sa démarche consiste à questionner par l'étude des populations les hypothèses qui sous-tendent les politiques en matière de migration et développement Africa and France Dominic Thomas, 2013-03-20 An excellent and incisive look at identity immigration and culture in postcolonial France Journal of West African History This stimulating and insightful book reveals how increased control over immigration has changed cultural and social production in theater literature and even museum construction Dominic Thomas's analysis unravels the complex cultural and political realities of long standing mobility between Africa and Europe Thomas questions the attempt to place strict limits on what it means to be French or European and offers a sense of what must happen to bring about a renewed sense of integration and global Frenchness Essential reading for anyone investigating the debates surrounding contemporary French identity and the ever changing relationship between France and her former colonial possessions African Studies Bulletin West African Studies Africa's Urbanisation Dynamics 2020 Africapolis, Mapping a New Urban Geography OECD, Sahel and West Africa Club, 2020-02-07 This report based on the Africapolis geo spatial database www.africapolis.org covering 7 600 urban agglomerations in 50 African countries provides detailed analyses of major African urbanisation dynamics placed within historical environmental and political contexts Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal

Blanchard, Sandrine Lemaire, Nicolas Bancel, Dominic Thomas, 2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity Multilingual Europe, Multilingual Europeans, 2015-06-29

Multilingualism is a crucial if often unrecognized marker of new European identities In this collection of essays we observe how a plurilinguist and pluricultural political entity practices and theorizes multilingualism We ask which types of multilingualism are defined encouraged or discouraged at the level of official policies but also at the level of communities We look at speakers of hegemonic or minority languages at travellers and long term migrants or their children and analyse how their conversations are represented in official documents visual art cinema literature and popular culture The volume is divided into two parts that focus respectively on Multilingual Europe and Multilingual Europeans The first series of chapters explore the extent to which multilingualism is treated as both a challenge and an asset by the European Union examine which factors contribute to the proliferation of languages globalisation the enlargement of the European Union and EU language policies The second part of the volume concentrates on the ways in which cultural productions represent the linguistic practices of Europeans in a way that emphasizes the impossibility to separate language from culture nationality but also class ethnicity or gender The chapters suggest that each form of plurilingualism needs to be carefully analysed rather than celebrated or condemned Chinese Migrants in Paris Simeng Wang, 2021-06-22

This research employs the narrative of mental suffering as a prism through which to study Chinese migration in France It provides new analytical angles and new perspectives on the paradoxical existence and conditions of the migrants and traces the social links between individuals and societies objectivity and subjectivity the real and the imaginary The ethnographic survey in this study is situated in the context of the transformation of Chinese society over the last forty years Dr Wang deconstructs the stereotypes of Chinese people demonstrates the dynamics of social mobilities and heterogeneous living conditions of Chinese migrants who experience and narrate happiness as well as pain joy as well as sorrow and hope as well as despair The transversal approach used to analyse the heterogeneity within an ethnic group will be of interest to scholars of migration studies in general

Migration internationale africaine Rachid Chaabita, 2017-01-01 Aujourd'hui les caractéristiques des migrations sont surtout spontanées et les situations socio-économiques en sont les principales responsables En Afrique particulièrement l'exode rural le chômage des diplômés l'instabilité politique et l'absence de la sécurité représentent les principales raisons de vouloir migrer Mais paradoxalement l'Afrique montre aujourd'hui ses richesses naturelles humaines et devient une force économique un espace d'accueil de capitaux et d'investissements Le continent se lance aujourd'hui vers un avenir prometteur et un futur riche en termes de mouvements humains et économiques Migrations en blanc, 2014-09-01 La Roumanie et la Bulgarie se sont inscrites dans le nouveau contexte d'élargissement de l'UE avec une intensification de la migration des professionnels de santé L'ampleur prise par la migration des médecins roumains et bulgares est liée à l'effondrement économique et à la dégradation de la qualité de vie dans ces deux pays Cette situation a des effets négatifs sur les systèmes de santé et sur l'accès aux soins pour la population

Borders, Fences and Walls Elisabeth Vallet, 2016-04-08 Twenty years after the fall of the Berlin Wall the question remains Do good fences still make good neighbours Since the Great Wall of China the Antonine Wall built in Scotland to support Hadrian's Wall the Roman Limes or the Danevirke fence the wall has been a constant in the protection of defined entities claiming sovereignty East and West But is the wall more than an historical relict for the management of borders In recent years the wall has been given renewed vigour in North America particularly along the U S Mexico border and in Israel Palestine But the success of these new walls in the development of friendly and orderly relations between nations or indeed within nations remains unclear What role does the wall play in the development of security and insecurity Do walls contribute to a sense of insecurity as much as they assuage fears and create a sense of security for those behind the line Exactly what kind of security is associated with border walls This book explores the issue of how the return of the border fences and walls as a political tool may be symptomatic of a new era in border studies and international relations Taking a multidisciplinary approach this volume examines problems that include security issues the recurrence and or decline of the wall wall discourses legal approaches to the wall the wall industry and border technology as well as their symbolism role objectives and efficiency

Building Sustainable Couples in International Relations B. Vassort-Rousset, 2014-11-24 The contributors investigate processes of international conflict transformation and peaceful cooperation They highlight how critical intermediary level components have proved more conducive to promoting rapprochement between rival states than interstate diplomatic engagement through incremental identity change Radyc vol. 2. Mobilités intra-africaines et développement Amadou Souleymanou, Zakaria Beine, 2025-07-14 Ce volume est le fruit de la seconde édition des journées scientifiques du Centre de recherche sur les dynamiques des mondes contemporains CERDYM qui devaient avoir lieu à Ndjamena les 26 et 27 mars 2021 Des circonstances imprévues l'ont annulé et pour en préserver les traces nous avons choisi de partager les réflexions de chercheurs qui ont proposé des sujets de communication sur les mobilités et le développement intra africain Ces contributions ont dicté l'organisation du texte en deux parties La première aborde la gouvernance migratoire la reconstruction des identités et l'intégration dans l'espace CEMAC La seconde examine les connaissances sur les mouvements de population liés au travail et la sécurité en Afrique centrale Ces recherches sur les migrations dans les pays du Sud mettent en évidence leur complexité notamment en Afrique centrale et remettent en question les théories transnationales Elles valent également l'impact de la migration intra africaine sur le développement des États de la région tout en considérant les questions identitaires liées aux frontières héritées de la période coloniale
