While there are many handbooks on entrepreneurship in general, there is no reference on East Asian entrepreneurship. This is the first of its kind in the market. The volume provides a useful reference for those who want to know East Asian entrepreneurship and business systems. The second part presents cases of entrepreneurial firms and their founders in East Asia, including Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and China. With the handbook, scholars, students, and policy makers can grab some basic ideas on how entrepreneurs and firms in East Asia compete and survive in the world market and understand why and how East Asia economies can emerge as one of the most dynamic regions in the world.
