Gould's Book of Fish Richard Flanagan, 2014-09-23 Winner of the Commonwealth Prize New York Times Book Review Notable Fiction 2002 Entertainment Weekly Best Fiction of 2002 Los Angeles Times Book Review Best of the Best 2002 Washington Post Book World Raves 2002 Chicago Tribune Favorite Books of 2002 Christian Science Monitor Best Books 2002 Publishers Weekly Best Books of 2002 The Cleveland Plain Dealer Year's Best Books Minneapolis Star Tribune Standout Books of 2002 Once upon a time when the earth was still young before the fish in the sea and all the living things on land began to be destroyed a man named William Buelow Gould was sentenced to life imprisonment at the most feared penal colony in the British Empire and there ordered to paint a book of fish He fell in love with the black mistress of the warder and discovered too late that to love is not safe he attempted to keep a record of the strange reality he saw in prison only to realize that history is not written by those who are ruled Acclaimed as a masterpiece around the world Gould's Book of Fish is at once a marvelously imagined epic of nineteenth century Australia and a contemporary fable a tale of horror and a celebration of love all transformed by a convict painter into pictures of fish Gould's Medical Dictionary George Milbry Gould, 1928

The Powers of the False Doro Wiese, 2014-11-30 Introduction The truth of narration and the powers of the false Accepting complicated legacies by being once removed from the world Everything is illuminated Foer 2002 He looked for truth in facts and not in stories crimes of historiography and forces of fabulation in Richard Flanagan's Gould's book of fish 2003 Making time undoing race Richard Powers The time of our singing 2003 Conclusion Hope at Sea Teresa Shewry, 2015-09-16 As far back as Thomas More's Utopia and Francis Bacon's New Atlantis the Pacific Ocean has inspired literary creations of promising worlds Hope at Sea asks how literary writers have more recently conceived the future of ocean living In doing so it provides a new perspective on art and imagination in the face of enormous environmental change Drawing together ecocriticism theories of hope and literary analysis this book explores how literary writers evoke hope in engaging with environmental upheavals that are reshaping life in the Pacific Ocean Teresa Shewry considers contemporary poetry short stories novels art and journalistic pieces from Australia New Zealand Hawai'i and other ocean sites examining their imaginative accounts of present life and future living in places where humans coexist with environmental loss rivers that no longer reach the sea dwindling populations of ocean life the effects of nuclear weapons testing and more These works are connected by their views of a future that includes hope Until now hope has never been theorized in a direct sustained way in ecocriticism Hope at Sea makes an argument for hope as a lens for creative and critical confrontation with environmental disruptions and the resulting sense of loss It also reflects on the critical approaches that hope as an analytic category opens up for the study of environmental literature With hope as a critical perspective Shewry develops a method for reading environmental literature literary writers create new ways to apprehend existing environmental realities and craft stories about seas forests cities and rivers that could be not as literal plans but as ways of imagining promising lives in the present
