

Katie's Autobiography

My name is Mohammed and I am 11 years old. I was born in Dubai. When I was a baby I drank from a bottle. My mom took good care of me. When I started to grow, my little sister was born. Our bedroom was filled with toys. Then, I started Kindergarten. I learned a lot. My teacher was very nice and taught me how to read. Next, I went to first grade. First grade is a little harder, but I am still learning a lot. My best friend is Moayed. He's really funny. We like to play tag at recess. I like my teacher this year because he reads us stories. My favorite subject is reading. I read lots of books. My favorite one is called "Diary of a Spider." My favorite color is purple and my favorite thing to do is sing. I live with my mom, my dad, and my sister. We go on walks together around the neighborhood. After school I always eat a snack. When I grow up, I want to be a doctor just like my dad.

theory is best known for her pioneering work in applying Roman Jakobson's theories of poetics to prose narratives. This collection draws together and makes accessible her writings over two decades among them articles appearing in English for the first time. She treats a wide range of Slavic literary works including those by Pushkin, Tolstoi, Pasternak, Chekhov and Solzhenitsyn as well as examples from Polish and Ukrainian literature and folklore. Forming an intellectual and methodological whole, these essays reveal Pomorska's commitment to the principles of Jakobsonian poetics, her consistent application of these basic theoretical concepts to the analysis of literary works and her interest in the foundations and history of literary criticism. Pomorska explores problems in both poetics of prose as well as poetry and literary theory, especially the relationship between biography and myth. In addition, several studies are devoted to the roots of the variegated intellectual legacy of Roman Jakobson and by extension of Russian-Czech structuralism in its various stages of development. In Krystyna Pomorska, structuralism found a most able practitioner and Jakobson's oeuvre an authoritative exponent and interpreter. Her volume, a guide book to a major strain in modern criticism, will be of great interest to a broad audience of literary theorists and students of Slavic literatures and literature in general.
