VSE JCL and Subroutines for Application Programmers Leo J. Langevin, 1992 This report describes the results of a survey of 1 000 multinational corporations undertaken in 1992 which asked about the importance of environmental issues in investment decisions The survey shows that most large corporations look systematically at environmental questions when they decide where to invest Environmental problems appear to have discouraged a number of investments across different industries and the question of liability for past pollution problems at industrial sites was the greatest concern for investors
