Responsibility and Resistance Tobias Eberwein, Matthias Karmasin, Friedrich Krotz, Matthias Rath, 2019-08-05 The volume deals with the normative challenges and the ethical questions imposed by and through the developments and changes in everyday life culture and society in the context of media change It is thus concerned with the questions of whether and how the central concept of enlightened ethics must evolve under these premises or in other words what form do ethics take in mediatized societies In order to address this question and to stimulate and initiate a debate the authors focus on two concepts responsibility and resistance Their contributions try to shed light not only on the empirical shreds of evidence of change in mediatized societies but also on the normative challenges and ethical possibilities of these developments The Reformation in Economics Philip Pilkington, 2016-12-13 This book carves the beginnings of a new path in the arguably weary discipline of economics It combines a variety of perspectives from the history of ideas to epistemology in order to try to understand what has gone so wrong with economics and articulate a coherent way forward This is undertaken through a dual path of deconstruction and reconstruction Mainstream economics is broken down into many of its key component parts and the history of each of these parts is scrutinized closely When the flaws are thoroughly understood the author then begins the task of reconstruction What emerges is not a Grand Unified Theory of Everything but rather a provisional map outlining a new terrain for economists to explore The Reformation in Economics is written in a lively and engaging style that aims less at the formalization of dogma and more at the exploration of ideas This truly groundbreaking work invites readers to rethink their current understanding of economics as a discipline and is particularly relevant for those interested in economic
