Lorraine Hassan,Rajani Naidoo,2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society

Self-directed learning research: An imperative for transforming the educational landscape Elsa Mentz,Thabisile Buthelezi,Josef de Beer,Adri du Toit,Aubrey Golightly,Sarah Gravett,Marietjie Havenga,Anitia Lubbe,Judah P. Makonye,Neal Petersen,Paulinah Phahamane,Jessica Pool,H.J. (Hennie) Steyn,Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt,Charl Wolhuter,2016-12-31 This book will benefit specialists in the field of the education sciences It represents significant progress in knowledge production Self directed learning has become increasingly important not only for education in South Africa but also for education sciences in the international arena This is a result of the changing education landscape caused by the demands of the 21st century as well as the rapid change in knowledge production Learners should be equipped with skills to take responsibility for their own learning New innovative strategies should be incorporated into teaching and learning in order to meet the changing demands in education Traditional teacher centred practices are still the norm in most South African schools and higher education institutions and do not adequately prepare students for lifelong learning in the 21st century The content focuses on the theory behind self directed learning explores strategies such as cooperative learning problembased learning case based teaching and large group teaching that enhance self directed learning and the use of blended learning in a self directed learning environment The book demonstrates how self directed learning can be enhanced in mathematics computer science and life science education and through the use of student tutors for geography Digital technology could for example also be used in innovative ways for education in isiZulu folk poetry The findings are based on original empirical research and a sound theoretical conceptual framework In an environment of rapidly changing knowledge production this book responds to the challenge of how to equip learners with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning The book presents innovative teaching and learning strategies for meeting the changing demands in education Group activities the responsibilities of learners and the obstacles that hinder their learning are analysed and the way in which educators can support them is discussed Educational values such as mutual trust are discussed and self directed assessment is explored This is a timely collective work authored by experts who subscribe to the approach of self directed learning Educators should discover new teaching and learning strategies and value the integration of self directed learning in the classroom

Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini ,2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa s key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector

Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication H. Ekkehard Wolff,Pamela Maseko,Russell H Kaschula,Christine Anthonissen,Bassey E Antia,2017-05-01 An in depth look at the changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society To date there has been no published textbook which takes into account changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication breaks new ground in this arena The scope of this book ranges from macro sociolinguistic questions pertaining to language policies and their implementation or non implementation to micro sociolinguistic observations of actual language use in verbal interaction mainly in multilingual contexts of Higher Education HE There is a gradual move for the study of language and culture to be taught in the context of professional disciplines in which they would be used for example Journalism and African languages Education and African languages etc The book caters for this growing market Because of its multilingual nature it caters to English and Afrikaans language speakers as well as the Sotho and Nguni language groups _ the largest languages in South Africa and also increasingly used in the context of South African Higher Education It brings together various inter linked disciplines such as Sociolinguistics and Applied Language Studies Media Studies and Journalism History and Education Social and Natural Sciences Law Human Language Technology Music Intercultural Communication and Literary Studies The unique cross cutting disciplinary features of the book will make it a must have for twenty first century South African students and scholars and those interested in applied language issues

Using ESL Students' First Language to Promote College Success Andrea Parmegiani,2019-01-15 Emerging from a critical analysis of the glocal power of English and how it relates to academic literacy and culturally responsive pedagogy this book presents translanguaging strategies for using ESL students mother tongue as a resource for academic literacy acquisition and college success Parmegiani offers a strong counterpoint to the English only movement in the United States Grounded in a case study of a learning community linking Spanish and English academic writing courses he demonstrates that a mother tongue based pedagogical intervention and the strategic use of minority home languages can promote English language acquisition and academic success Speaking Subjects in Multilingualism Research Judith Purkharthofer, Mi-Cha Flubacher, 2022-07-22 This book discusses salient moments of multilingual encounters and brings together contributions focused on the interplay between language use by individuals and societies and language related inequalities or opportunities for speakers The chapters demonstrate how biographical and speaker centred approaches can contribute to an understanding of linguistic diversity how researchers can empirically account for lived experiences of languages and how such accounts are embedded in a larger discussion on social inequality Together the chapters make a powerful case for the importance of speaker centred methodologies in multilingual and multilingualism research The book is a rich source of theoretical and methodological reflections and will thus be a valuable resource for both experienced researchers and students beginning to explore biographical research methods Ubuntu Marietjie Oelofsen, Upenyu Majee, Bongani Mgijima, Jamie Monson, 2024-08-20 Ubuntu Interdisciplinary Conversations Across Continents is a collection of work by 17 scholars emerging from the Ubuntu Dialogues Seminar Exchange Fellowship hosted by Stellenbosch University in South Africa and Michigan State University in the US between 2019 and 2022 This collaborative work brings new voices and new ways of interrogating a concept that holds possibilities for living together differently The contributions problematise the concept in provocative and surprising ways and disrupt narrow and superficial interpretations of Ubuntu The contributors to this book foreground critical issues which are fundamental towards a deeper understanding of the notion of ubuntu Dr Sithembele Marawu University of Fort Hare This book features next generation rising stars from places such as South Africa Zimbabwe Malawi Burundi and the US writing about ubuntu the indigenous southern African term often used to capture African philosophy especially its moral dimensions A fresh kaleidoscopic engagement with ubuntu Professor Thaddeus Metz University of Pretoria African Foreign Policies Paul-Henri Bischoff, 2020-03-26 This book explores at a time when several powers have become serious players on the continent aspects of African agency past and present by African writers on foreign policy representative of geography language and state size In the past African foreign policy has largely been considered within the context of reactions to the international or global external factor This groundbreaking book however looks at how foreign policy has been crafted and used in response not just to external but also mainly domestic imperatives or theoretical signifiers As such it narrates individual and changing foreign policy orientations over time and as far back as independence with mainly African based scholars who present their own constructs of what is a useful theoretical narrative regarding foreign policy on the continent how theory is adapted to local circumstance or substituted for continentally based ontologies The book therefore contends that the African experience carries valuable import for expanding general understandings of foreign policy in general This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of Foreign Policy Analysis Foreign Policy Studies African International Relations Politics Studies Diplomacy and more broadly to International Relations The Oxford Handbook of Multicultural Identity Veronica Benet-Martinez, Ying-Yi Hong, 2015-08-01 Multiculturalism is a prevalent worldwide societal phenomenon Aspects of our modern life such as migration economic globalization multicultural policies and cross border travel and communication have made intercultural contacts inevitable High numbers of multicultural individuals 23 43% of the population by some estimates can be found in many nations where migration has been strong e g Australia U S Western Europe Singapore or where there is a history of colonization e g Hong Kong Many multicultural individuals are also ethnic and cultural minorities who are descendants of immigrants majority individuals with extensive multicultural experiences or people with culturally mixed families all people for whom identification and or involvement with multiple cultures is the norm Despite the prevalence of multicultural identity and experiences until the publication of this volume there has not yet been a comprehensive review of scholarly research on the psychological underpinning of multiculturalism The Oxford Handbook of Multicultural Identity fills this void It reviews cutting edge empirical and theoretical work on the psychology of multicultural identities and experiences As a whole the volume addresses some important basic issues such as measurement of multicultural identity links between multilingualism and multiculturalism the social psychology of multiculturalism and globalization as well as applied issues such as multiculturalism in counseling education policy marketing and organizational science to mention a few This handbook will be useful for students researchers and teachers in cultural social personality developmental acculturation and ethnic psychology It can also be used as a source book in advanced undergraduate and graduate courses on identity and multiculturalism and a reference for applied psychologists and researchers in the domains of education management and marketing Breaking the Silence Ellen Grünkemeier, 2013 Examines the South African HIV AIDS epidemic through creative texts and the impact of these representations in determining which issues receive attention and how public understanding of the virus is shaped South Africa is one of the countries in the world most affected by HIV AIDS and yet until recently the epidemic was barely visible in South African literature Much can be gained from approaching the South African epidemic through creative texts such as novels photographs films cartoons and murals because they produce and circulate meanings of HIV AIDS and its various facets such as its origin transmission routes and physical manifestations Other aspects explored are the denial of HIV AIDS its stigmatisation discriminatory practices modes of disclosure access to anti retroviral medication as well as the role of alternative treatment Creative texts which are open to different and possibly contradictory readings can serve as a starting point to increase the cultural visibility of the virus and to challenge dominant ideas about the epidemic The cultural constructions of HIV AIDS should be carefully examined because the meanings are pervasive and have very real consequences they play a powerful role both in determining which issues receive attention and in shaping public understanding of the virus Ellen Grünkemeier is a lecturer and researcher in the English Department at Leibniz University of English-Medium Instruction and Translanguaging BethAnne Paulsrud, Zhongfeng Tian, Jeanette Toth, 2021-01-20 This book offers a critical exploration of definitions, methodologies and ideologies of English medium instruction (EMI) contributing to new understandings of translanguaging as theory and pedagogy across diverse contexts. It brings together a number of conceptual and empirical studies on translanguaging in EMI at different educational levels in a variety of countries with different approaches to translanguaging, different named languages and different policies. These studies include several underrepresented contexts across the globe, providing a broad view of how translanguaging in EMI is understood in these educational settings. Furthermore, this book addresses the complexities of translanguaging through a discussion of the affordances and constraints associated with the use of multiple linguistic resources in the EMI classroom.

Ideophones, Mimetics and Expressives Kimi Akita, Prashant Pardeshi, 2019-05-06 This volume explores new frontiers in the linguistic study of iconic lexemes known as ideophones, mimetics and expressives. A large part of the literature on this long neglected word class has been dedicated to the description of its sound symbolism, marked morphophonology and grammatical status in individual languages. Drawing on data from Asian, especially Japanese, African American and European languages, the twelve chapters in this volume aim to establish common grounds for theoretical and crosslinguistic discussions of the phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, pragmatics, acquisition and variation of iconic lexemes. Not only researchers who are interested in linguistic iconicity but also theoretical linguists and typologists will benefit from the updated insights presented in each study.
