Islamic Indoctrination In A Public School In Scottsdale:

Islamic Education and Indoctrination Charlene Tan, 2012-01-26 Islamic schools especially madrasahs have been viewed as sites of indoctrination for Muslim students and militants. Some educators and parents in the United States have also regarded introductory courses on Islam in some public schools as indoctrinatory. But what do we mean by indoctrination? And is Islamic education indoctrinatory? This book critically discusses the concept of indoctrination in the context of Islamic education. It explains that indoctrination occurs when a person holds to a type of beliefs known as control beliefs that result in ideological totalitarianism. Using Indonesia as an illustrative case study, the book expounds on the conditions for an indoctrinatory tradition to exist and thrive. Examples include the Islamic school co-founded by Abu Bakar Ba'asyir and the militant organisation Jemaah Islamiyah. The book further proposes ways to counter and avoid indoctrination through formal, non-formal, and informal education. It argues for the creation and promotion of educative traditions that are underpinned by religious pluralism, strong rationality, and strong autonomy. Examples of such educative Muslim traditions in Indonesia will be highlighted. Combining philosophical inquiry with empirical research, this book is a timely contribution to the study of contemporary and often controversial issues in Islamic education.

Islam's Mandate: A Tribute to Jihad Mr. Pat, 2010-09-27 This work is based on the religion of Islam and the fundamental Muslims who live by Islamic Sharia law and associate themselves with Sunni Islam or the Shi'a philosophy of the 6th imam. Islam's Mandate separates 80 % of the Muslim ummah family who live in Third World countries who cannot read or write from the radical world of Islam as well as others who continue to associate themselves with the Muslim family but have strayed from the teachings of Muhammad and are less than Islam's Muslim in their way of life. In the book, the author deals with 1500-year-old beliefs of the fundamentalist Islam's true Muslim. The questions asked and answered are: what is the true nature of Islam and who are the real Islam Muslims in the mosques who stay hidden behind closed doors? Those who must defend against radical Islam must take time to understand the Jihadist. It is time America pulls its head out of Muslim sand that is soaked with blood from 1500 years of Islamic aggression and deals with the reality of what was once an oppressed tribal cult in the Arabian Desert but is now a dominating, brutal, and repressive theocracy spreading to every corner of this planet.

Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education Liz Jackson, 2014-04-03 Winner of Philosophy of Education Society of Australasia (PESA)'s inaugural PESA Book Awards in 2015 and The University of Hong Kong Research Output Prize for Education 2014-15. Muslims and Islam in U.S. Education explores the complex interface that exists between U.S. school curriculum, teaching practice about religion in public schools, societal and teacher attitudes toward Islam and Muslims, and multiculturalism as a framework for meeting the needs of minority group students. It presents multiculturalism as a concept that needs to be rethought and reformulated in the interest of creating a more democratic, inclusive, and informed society. Islam is an under-considered religion in American education due in part to the fact that Muslims represent a very small minority of the population today, less than 1%. However, this group faces a crucial challenge of representation in United States society as a whole as well as in its schools Muslims in the United States are impacted by ignorance that news and opinion polls have demonstrated is widespread among the public in the last few decades U S citizens who do not have a balanced fair and accurate view of Islam can make a variety of decisions in the voting booth in job hiring and within their small scale but important personal networks and spheres of influence that make a very negative impact on Muslims in the United States This book presents new information that has implications for curricula religious education and multicultural education today examining the unique case of Islam in U S education over the last 20 years Chapters include Perspectives on Multicultural Education 9 11 the Media and the New Need to Know Islam and Muslims in Public Schools Blazing a Path for Intercultural Education This book is an essential resource for professors researchers and teachers of social studies particularly those involved with multicultural issues critical and sociocultural analysis of education and schools as well as interdisciplinary scholars and students in anthropology and education
