Meaning And Textuality:

Meaning and Textuality François Rastier, Frank Collins, Paul Perron, 1997 Rastier proposes a theoretical framework for the semantic description and typology of texts establishing a critical debate among various streams of research before arriving at a synthesis of literary semiotics, thematics and linguistic semantics A Theory of Textuality Jorge J. E.

Gracia, 1995-07-01 This book is just what it says it is. A theory of textuality divided into two parts: logical and epistemological.

Meaning and Reading Michel Meyer, 1983-01-01 According to the traditional view, meaning presents itself under the form of some kind of identity. To give the meaning of a sentence amounts to being capable of producing some substitute based on the identity of the terms of the sentence. Is then the meaning of a book or of any text the capacity of rewriting it. Instead of retaining a double standard theory of meaning, one for sentences and another for texts that would allow for an ad hoc gap, the author provides a unified conception called the question view of language he has developed, known as problematology. He pursues a systematic analysis of questioning in literature and shows how questioning makes the understanding process possible. Translation as Text Albrecht Neubert, Gregory M. Shreve, 1992 The basic tenet here is that we do not translate words but texts and that these competing models can be integrated into a more global theory of translation by viewing the translation process as a primarily textual process. The authors examine in detail the characteristics that make a good translation, a text focusing particularly on the empirical relationship between the theory of translation and its practice.

The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, 2012-08-26 The most important poetry reference for more than four decades, now fully updated for the twenty-first century. Through three editions over more than four decades, The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics has built an unrivaled reputation as the most comprehensive and authoritative reference for students, scholars, and poets on all aspects of its subject: history, movements, genres, prosody, rhetorical devices, critical terms, and more. Now this landmark work has been thoroughly revised and updated for the twenty-first century. Compiled by an entirely new team of editors, the fourth edition, the first new edition in almost twenty years, reflects recent changes in literary and cultural studies, providing up-to-date coverage and giving greater attention to the international aspects of poetry, all while preserving the best of the previous volumes. At well over a million words and more than 1,000 entries, the Encyclopedia has unparalleled breadth and depth. Entries range in length from brief paragraphs to major essays of 15,000 words, offering a more thorough treatment, including expert synthesis and indispensable bibliographies, than conventional handbooks or dictionaries. This is a book that no reader or writer of poetry will want to be without. Thoroughly revised and updated by a new editorial team for twenty-first-century students, scholars, and poets, more than 250 new entries cover recent terms, movements, and related topics. Broader international coverage includes articles on the poetics of more than 110 nations, regions, and languages. Expanded coverage of poetics of the non-Western and developing worlds. Updated bibliographies and cross references. New, easier-to-use page

Vanhoozer,2005-11 This groundbreaking reference tool introduces key names theories and concepts for interpreting Scripture      The Textual Condition Jerome J. McGann,2020-09-01 Over the past decade literary critic and editor Jerome McGann has developed a theory of textuality based in writing and production rather than in reading and interpretation These new essays extend his investigations of the instability of the physical text McGann shows how every text enters the world under socio-historical conditions that set the stage for a ceaseless process of textual development and mutation Arguing that textuality is a matter of inscription and articulation he explores texts as material and social phenomena as particular kinds of acts McGann links his study to contextual and institutional studies of literary works as they are generated over time by authors editors typographers book designers marketing planners and other publishing agents This enables him to examine issues of textual stability and instability in the arenas of textual production and reproduction Drawing on literary examples from the past two centuries including works by Byron Blake Morris Yeats Joyce and especially Pound McGann applies his theory to key problems facing anyone who studies texts and textuality
