Re: Acct #XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-XXXX

Dear Madam/Sir,

I am writing to you today regarding my account #XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-XXXX. The purpose of my correspondence is to see if you would be willing to make a "goodwill" adjustment on the reporting of this account to the three credit agencies.

During the time period this account was established I was very happy with the service. I was however not the ideal customer and made mistakes with my handling of the account. I should have kept better records regarding the account and I take full responsibility. I became aware of the unpaid balance when I got a copy of my credit report in (insert date).

I know that payment was my responsibility and I am not attempting to justify this breach of my user agreement. I was however hoping you might review the circumstances under which this non-payment occurred and consider removing the negative trade line associated with this account from my three credit reports.

Monthly Bulletin - League of Red Cross Societies ,1929 Advanced Business Communication John M. Penrose,Robert W. Rasberry,Robert J. Myers,1989 A Forensic Linguistic Approach to Legal Disclosures James Stratman,2015-10-08 This book is a scholarly work of forensic linguistics that demonstrates how the principles of Gricean pragmatics and their recent elaboration in Information Manipulation Theory IMT can be of use to courts faced with deciding cases of allegedly fraudulent disclosure documents The usual goal of legal rules for disclosure documents is not merely to prevent lying but other forms of deception as well In particular the goal of these rules is to force the communicator to reveal information that could cause material harm to certain receivers harms that the communicator for various reasons of self interest might prefer to keep secret or hidden Because IMT and the Gricean framework have seldom been used in published studies to investigate legally mandated disclosure documents aimed at laypersons this book seeks to enrich current explications of the rhetorical workings of deceptive disclosures within the broader Gricean tradition of pragmatics The book questions the fundamental relationships among Grice s maxims as well as the much circulated notion that violation of some maxims is more deceptive and more immoral than violations of others In addition the book also attempts to show how various other theories and research in discourse linguistics and reading comprehension can be used to support IMT analyses in addressing the discourse processing issues unique to legally required disclosure texts In this way the book contributes to the larger dual mission of the field of forensic linguistics which is both to understand and to improve courts impact on social justice Principles of Business & Management Oliver Laasch,2024-03-07 In light of seismic global events including the Covid 19 pandemic the Black Lives Matter movement the war in Ukraine and extreme weather incidents propelled by climate change there has never been a more important time to learn about management in ways that not only benefit business but also help confront the world s challenges support people and planet and contribute to peace and prosperity for all Fully revised and once again endorsed by the UN s Principles for Responsible Management Education PRME initiative this popular textbook equips you with the skills to become a responsibly ethically and sustainably minded business professional Featuring two brand new chapters on Behaving and Digitalizing over 50 new and updated case studies pioneer interviews and practitioner profiles as well as a wide range of exercises and worksheets the book also integrates the UN s Sustainable Development Goals SDGs to help promote sustainable development as essential to business and management today This essential textbook can be used for a wide range of courses from introductory business management to responsible sustainable management business ethics business and society and corporate social responsibility CSR Oliver Laasch is a Chaired Professor of Responsible Management at ESCP Business School and an Adjunct Professor of Social Entrepreneurship at the University of Manchester
