

Introduction

In recent years there has been a broad awareness of animal suffering and animal rights, rights both civil and rights that keep people believe that we should give animals just rights to humans. Others view them as a fashionable means of food, as well as other related products.

Body paragraph #1

First of all, it seems clear for north intelligent people that animals deserve more rights than they have. Unfortunately some people think it because they are obviously not used to go with thoughts and feelings are if there are not really the same as our own. For example, it has been said that some animals - birds and elephants - smile, that some people like to have as their animals keeping the signs of their pain, and write that we should communicate with human suffering. Therefore, it appears quite clear that they should be given the same rights and preferences as humans.

Body paragraph #2

There are arguments against animal rights for animals point out that they do not have the ability of human feeling and speech but instead they have a lot of things and that the level of behavior is clearly normal within the natural world. It looks humans should not better give rights upon their animal mind but to be because not natural relationship is much the same as that of a wolf and a sheep. It should conclude for us that animals for our own benefit because that is the natural way of the world.

Conclusion

In conclusion, there are arguments from both sides of the debate, both arguing that that animals deserve respect, preferences, and some rights, and arguing that they should not be given the same treatment as humans but they should certainly be treated better than they currently are and that should be drafted for when their preferences, from studies suffering.
