Islam And The Challenges Of Western Capitalism:

Islam and the Challenges of Western Capitalism Murat Çizakça,2014 Islam and the Challenges of Western Capitalism Murat Çizakça,2014 This unique book brings together some of the finest minds in comparative economic financial history and modern Islamic finance to discuss the rise the decline and the contemporary efforts to regenerate Islamic capitalism The collection features articles on the contribution of classical Muslim scholars to the history of economic thought the institutions that translated these ideas into everyday life and whether these thoughts and institutions constitute a clash or a symbiosis of civilizations The efforts of contemporary Muslim thinkers to design a modern Islamic economy are also carefully scrutinized Islamic Capital Markets: A Comparative Approach (Second Edition) Obiyathulla Ismath Bacha,Abbas Mirakhor,2019-02-27 Islamic Capital Markets A Comparative Approach 2nd Edition looks at the similarities and differences between Islamic capital markets and conventional capital markets The book explains each topic from both the conventional and the Islamic perspective offering a full understanding of Islamic capital markets processes and instruments In addition to a full explanation of Islamic products the book also ensures a holistic understanding of the dual markets within which Islamic capital markets operate Ideal for both students and current practitioners the second edition of the highly successful Islamic Capital Markets A Comparative Approach fills a large gap in the current literature on the subject featuring case studies from Malaysia Indonesia Europe and the Middle East One of the few comprehensive dedicated guides to the subject available the book offers comprehensive and in depth insights on the topic of Islamic finance for students and professionals alike

Contemporary Issues in Islamic Law, Economics and Finance Flavia Cortelezzi,Alessandro Ferrari,2022-08-12 This book explores how Islam can impact the structures and performance of firms financial institutions and capital markets across a range of countries and industries The Islamic finance industry represents an important reality not only because of the oil wealth of the Gulf states which have fueled demand for such financial services but also for an increased demand from a growing Muslim population in the West that aspires to express a full and all inclusive religious identity The increased demand for Muslim financial institutions has prompted Western non Islamic firms to begin providing these services in an interesting effort of acculturation to the new plural scenario By adopting a multidisciplinary approach which also takes into account the theological legal and geopolitical framework the book offers a comprehensive picture of Islamic financial tools contracts and business opportunities Drawing on different fields of expertise it deals with various themes such as the theological roots of Islamic economics and finance and its geopolitical impact the EU policy of cooperation with MENA and GCC countries the instruments of Islamic finance its legal principle and ability to become an instrument for enhancing business opportunities the functioning of Islamic banks the development of capital markets within a financial model influenced by religious constraints and finally the new relationships of this religious financial system with Western legal systems The book thus provides a complete and extensive overview of the practice of Islamic finance through the lenses

offered by studies of economics and management Providing a careful analysis and an integrated framework of geo economic and political issues the book will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and professionals in International Business Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management Law and Religion and Intercultural Studies Ideal Islamic Economy Abbas Mirakhor,Hossein Askari,2017-08-11 This book provides an introduction to the vision of an economic system based completely on the Holy Qur an a system defined as a collection of institutions representing rules of behavior prescribed by Allah for humans and the traditions of the Messenger The authors argue that the main reason for the economic underperformance of Muslim countries and their economies has been non compliance with the prescribed rules of behavior Rule non compliance has been chiefly due to the failure of Muslims to comprehend the Metaframework of the Qur an and the Archetype Model of the Prophet Mohammad and interpret them in ways compatible with their own generation and time Askari and Mirakhor believe these rules institutions properly adapted to prevailing conditions present what they consider as an ideal economic system Muslims, Money, and Democracy in Turkey Özlem Madi-Sisman,2017-07-06 This book contextualizes the rise of a neo Islamic Turkish bourgeoisie class with a particular reference to the relationship between Islam and Capitalism and makes the argument for their ultimate compatibility Additionally the claim is made that the formation of this new socio economic class has been detrimental to Turkey s efforts to consolidate its democracy In order to analyze these processes an Islamic oriented young business group Economic Entrepreneurship and Business Ethic Association IGIAD was taken as a case study Drawing on fieldwork in examining IGIAD S mission vision and activities the book argues that such associations were born as a response to increasing tension between capitalism and Islam with the aim of creating a moral economy within global capitalism Humanism Challenges Materialism in Economics and Economic History Roderick Floud,Santhi Hejeebu,David Mitch,2017-01-23 Most of the existing research on economic history relies either solely or ultimately on calculations of material interest to explain the major events of the modern world However care must be taken not to rely too heavily on materialism with its associated confidence in perfectly rational actors that simply do not exist What is needed for a more cogent understanding of the long history of capitalist growth is a more realistic human centered approach that can take account of the role of nonmaterial values and beliefs an approach convincingly articulated by Deirdre McCloskey in her landmark trilogy of books on the moral and ethical basis of modern economic life With Humanism Challenges Materialism in Economics and Economic History Roderick Floud Santhi Hejeebu and David Mitch have brought together a distinguished group of scholars in economics economic history political science philosophy gender studies and communications who synthesize and build on McCloskey s work The essays in this volume illustrate the ways in which the humanistic approach to economics that McCloskey pioneered can open up new vistas for the study of economic history and cultivate rich synergies with a wide range of disciplines The contributors show how values and beliefs become embedded in the language of economics and shape economic outcomes Chapters on methodology are accompanied by case studies discussing particular episodes in economic history Politics: An Introduction Barrie Axford, Victoria Browne, Richard Huggins, Rico Isaacs, 2018-05-30 The second edition of this user friendly text for students taking introductory courses in politics builds on the success of the first edition It provides completely updated and stimulating coverage of topics essential to the understanding of contemporary politics Ideal for students taking combined degrees at introductory level in politics and the social sciences it emphasises the individual and social dimension of politics and covers theories and concepts in an accessible way New features in the second edition include new examples drawn from Western democracies and other political systems expanded sections on nationalism religion alternative politics globalisation and ethnic conflict updated examples from the most contemporary political events biographies of key political thinkers and figures Politics Barrie Axford, 2002 The authors emphasize the role of the individual in politics and the interplay between the personal the national and the global This interactive text includes think points exercises and extracts as well as illustrative material Applying Risk-Sharing Finance for Economic Development Putri Swastika, Abbas Mirakhor, 2021-09-13 This book examines the application of risk sharing finance as a national economic policy in history and how it stimulated economic recovery during a short period in Germany between 1933 and 1935 Economic history indicates that risk sharing instruments have promoted socio economic development in many parts of the world while risk shifting methods have imposed huge socio economic costs on many nations leading to debt slavery on individual members This book highlights lessons to be learned from history and argues that risk sharing is a powerful tool for generating rapid economic recovery and resumption of growth American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 15:3 Ali A. Mazrui, Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi', Dilnuwaz A. Siddiqui, M. A. Carroll, Yildiz Atasoy, Y?ld?z Atasoy, 2003-01-01 Global Shaping and its Alternatives offers a unique series of reflections on the connections between market capitalism the politics of alternatives and the cultural elaboration of social change It argues that there is a need for an alternative explanatory framework on globalization one that rejects

fatalism and highlights the dynamic roles of states NGOs local fractions of capital democratic movements and gendered social relations Without understanding how global shaping is taking place and how it affects human life across the globe there can be no transformational possibility for humanizing our conditions of existence Effectively Countering

Terrorism Cornelia Beyer, Michael Bauer, 2009-08-05 Since September 11 2001 the pressure on Al Qaeda has increased This book reflects on the following questions What additional actions are required in counter terrorism policy to reverse the increase in terror directed activities And What are the main shortcomings of current policy initiatives Living at the

Crossroads Michael W. Goheen, Craig G. Bartholomew, 2008-11-01 How can Christians live faithfully at the crossroads of the story of Scripture and postmodern culture In Living at the Crossroads authors Michael Goheen and Craig Bartholomew explore this question as they provide a general introduction to Christian worldview Ideal for both students and lay readers Living at the Crossroads lays out a brief summary of the biblical story and the most fundamental beliefs of Scripture The book tells the story of Western culture from the classical period to postmodernity The authors then provide an analysis of how Christians live in the tension that exists at the intersection of the biblical and cultural stories exploring the important implications in key areas of life such as education scholarship economics politics and church God's Rule Suzanne

Neusner, 2003-05-06 Resisting the tendency to separate the study of religion and politics editor Jacob Neusner pulls together a collection of ten essays in which various authors explain and explore the relationship between the world's major religions and political power As William Scott Green writes in the introduction Because religion is so comprehensive it is fundamentally about power it therefore cannot avoid politics Beginning with the classical sources and texts of Judaism Christianity Buddhism Islam Confucianism and Hinduism God's Rule begins to explore the complex nature of how each religion shapes political power and how religion shapes itself in relation to that power The corresponding attention to differing theories of politics and views towards non believers are important not only to studies in comparative religion but to foreign policy history and governance as well From early Christianity's relationship to the Roman Empire to Hinduism's relationship to Gandhi and the caste system God's Rule provides a basis of understanding from which undergraduates seminarians and others can begin asking questions of relationships both unavoidable and systematically uneasy
