Making Literature Now Amy Hungerford, 2016-08-03 How does new writing emerge and find readers today Why does one writer's work become famous while another's remains invisible Making Literature Now tells the stories of the creators editors readers and critics who make their living by making literature itself come alive The book shows how various conditions including gender education business dynamics social networks money and the forces of literary tradition affect the things we can choose or refuse to read Amy Hungerford focuses her discussion on literary bestsellers as well as little known traditional and digital literature from smaller presses such as McSweeney's She deftly matches the particular human stories of the makers with the impersonal structures through which literary reputation is made Ranging from fine grained ethnography to polemical argument this book transforms our sense of how and why new literature appears and disappears in contemporary American culture

Monstrous Imaginaries Maaheen Ahmed, 2019-11-29 Monsters seem inevitably linked to humans and not always as mere opposites Maaheen Ahmed examines good monsters in comics to show how Romantic themes from the eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries persist in today's popular culture Comics monsters questioning the distinction between human and monster self and other are valuable conduits of Romantic inclinations Engaging with Romanticism and the many monsters created by Romantic writers and artists such as Mary Shelley Victor Hugo and Goya Ahmed maps the heritage functions and effects of monsters in contemporary comics and graphic novels She highlights the persistence of recurrent Romantic features through monstrous protagonists in English and French language comics and draws out their implications Aspects covered include the dark Romantic predilection for ruins and the sordid the solitary protagonist and his quest nostalgia the prominence of the spectacle as well as excessive emotions and above all the monster's ambiguity and rebelliousness Ahmed highlights each Romantic theme through close readings of well known but often overlooked comics including Enki Bilal's Monstre tetralogy Jim O Barr's The Crow and Emil Ferris's My Favorite Thing Is Monsters as well as the iconic comics series Alan Moore's Swamp Thing and Mike Mignola's Hellboy In blurring the otherness of the monster these protagonists retain the exaggeration and uncontrollability of all monsters while incorporating Romantic characteristics

Postmodern/Postwar and After Jason Gladstone, Andrew Hoberek, Daniel Worden, 2016-07-01 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the post modern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies that is currently underway McSweeney's ,199?

What Happens When Nothing Happens Greice Schneider,2016-06-30 Boredom and melancholy in the experience of reading Contemporary graphic novels show an interesting shift from the extraordinary to the ordinary in slice of life stories in which nothing happens Present day graphic accounts are inhabited by melancholic characters whining about the lack of meaning in life This book examines this intriguing transition and brings a historical aesthetical and narratological approach to comics in which boredom is not only a topic but also awakens a deliberate affective response in the very experience of reading This volume brings together close readings of work by Lewis Trondheim Chris Ware and Adrian Tomine With a foreword by Raphael Baroni University of Lausanne McSweeney's Issue 57 (McSweeney's Quarterly Concern) Claire Boyle,Dave Eggers,2019-10-08 V 5 Cliffhangers Part I of II Wilder man Mona Awad To breathe the air Brian Evenson The last tattoo Oyinkan Braithwaite 104 pages 11 x 15 cm The Working Press of the Nation ,1992 Caregiving in the Illness Context T.
