The Annotated Hans Christian Andersen (The Annotated Books) Hans Christian Andersen, 2007-11-17 A richly entertaining and informative collection of Hans Christian Andersen's stories annotated by one of America's leading folklore scholars. In her most ambitious annotated work to date, Maria Tatar celebrates the stories told by Denmark's perfect wizard and re-visions Hans Christian Andersen as a writer who casts his spell on both children and adults. Andersen's most beloved tales such as The Emperor's New Clothes, The Ugly Duckling, and The Little Mermaid are now joined by The Shadow and Story of a Mother, mature stories that reveal his literary range and depth. Tatar captures the tales' unrivaled dramatic and visual power, showing exactly how Andersen became one of the world's ten most translated authors, along with Shakespeare, Dickens, and Marx. Lushly illustrated with more than one hundred fifty rare images, many in full color, by artists such as Arthur Rackham and Edmund Dulac, The Annotated Hans Christian Andersen will captivate readers with annotations that explore the rich social and cultural dimensions of the nineteenth century and construct a compelling portrait of a writer whose stories still fascinate us today.

Andersen's Fairy Tales (Annotated) Hans Christian Andersen,2018-02-25 This is an annotated version of the book1 contains an updated biography of the author at the end of the book for a better understanding of the text 2 This book has been checked and corrected for spelling errorsMany years ago there was an Emperor who was so excessively fond ofnew clothes that he spent all his money in dress He did not troublehimself in the least about his soldiers nor did he care to go either tothe theatre or the chase except for the opportunities then afforded himfor displaying his new clothes He had a different suit for each hour ofthe day and as of any other king or emperor one is accustomed to say he is sitting in council it was always said of him The Emperor issitting in his wardrobe Time passed merrily in the large town which was his capital strangersarrived every day at the court One day two rogues calling themselvesweavers made their appearance They gave out that they knew how toweave stuffs of the most beautiful colors and elaborate patterns theclothes manufactured from which should have the wonderful property ofremaining invisible to everyone who was unfit for the office he held orwho was extraordinarily simple in character These must indeed be splendid clothes thought the Emperor Had Isuch a suit I might at once find out what men in my realms are unfitfor their office and also be able to distinguish the wise from thefoolish This stuff must be woven for me immediately And he causedlarge sums of money to be given to both the weavers in order that theymight begin their work directly So the two pretended weavers set up two looms and affected to work verybusily though in reality they did nothing at all They asked for themost delicate silk and the purest gold thread put both into their own knapsacks and then continued their pretended work at the empty looms until late at night I should like to know how the weavers are getting on with my cloth said the Emperor to himself after some little time had elapsed he was however rather embarrassed when he remembered that a simpleton or one unfit for his office would be unable to see the manufacture To be sure he thought he had nothing to risk in his own person but yet he would prefer sending somebody else to bring him intelligence about the weavers and their work before he troubled himself in the affair All the people throughout the city had heard of the wonderful property the cloth was to possess and all were anxious to learn how wise or how ignorant their neighbors might prove to be I will send my faithful old minister to the weavers said the Emperor at last after some deliberation he will be best able to see how the cloth looks for he is a man of sense and no one can be more suitable for his office than he is So the faithful old minister went into the hall where the knaves were working with all their might at their empty looms What can be the meaning of this thought the old man opening his eyes very wide I cannot discover the least bit of thread on the looms However he did not express his thoughts aloud The impostors requested him very courteously to be so good as to come nearer their looms and then asked him whether the design pleased him and whether the colors were not very beautiful at the same time pointing to the empty frames The poor old minister looked and looked he could not discover anything on the looms for a very good reason viz there was nothing there What thought he again Is it possible that I am a simpleton I have never thought so myself and no one must know it now if I am so Can it be that I am unfit for my office No that must not be said either I will never confess that I could not see the stuff Well Sir Minister said one of the knaves still pretending to work You do not say whether the stuff pleases you
