Earth-honoring Faith Larry L. Rasmussen, 2015-04-01 Grand Winner of the 2014 Nautilus Book Awards Thoughtful observers agree that the planetary crisis we now face climate change species extinction the destruction of entire ecosystems the urgent need for a more just economic political order is pushing human civilization to a radical turning point change or perish But precisely how to change remains an open question In Earth honoring Faith Larry Rasmussen answers that question with a dramatically new way of thinking about human society ethics and the ongoing health of our planet Rejecting the modern assumption that morality applies to human society alone Rasmussen insists that we must derive a spiritual and ecological ethic that accounts for the well being of all creation as well as the primal elements upon which it depends earth air fire water and sunlight He argues that good science necessary as it is will not be enough to inspire fundamental change We must draw on religious resources as well to make the difficult transition from an industrial technological age obsessed with consumption to an ecological age that restores wise stewardship of all life Earth honoring Faith advocates an alliance of spirituality and ecology in which the material requirements for planetary life are reconciled with deep traditions of spirituality across religions traditions that include mysticism sacramentalism prophetic practices asceticism and the cultivation of wisdom It is these shared spiritual practices that can produce a chorus of world faiths to counter the consumerism utilitarianism alienation oppression and folly that have pushed us to the brink Written with passionate commitment and deep insight Earth honoring Faith reminds us that we must live in the present with the knowledge that the eyes of future generations will look back at us The Substance of Faith Allied with Science Sir Oliver Lodge, 1907

penetrating revisioning of Christian theology one that is thoroughly grounded in the classical traditions of the church

Vincent Brümmer,2019-10-01 This volume presents a wide ranging selection from the writings of a leading contemporary philosophical theologian Vincent Brümmer In his many books and articles Brümmer has demonstrated how the tools of philosophical analysis are not only fruitful but also essential for dealing with the central issues of systematic theology The title of this volume Meaning and the Christian Faith highlights two characteristic themes that recur throughout the many writings of Vincent Brümmer Much of his work has been devoted to exploring the meaning of the Christian faith and especially of its central claim that God is a personal being whose fellowship believers may enjoy On the other hand Brümmer has also shown that religious belief should not be understood as an explanatory theory but rather as a way in which believers understand the meaning of their lives and their experience of the world and direct their lives accordingly Thus in the Christian tradition believers claim that their lives are meaningful because they seek to attain ultimate happiness in the love of God In the introductory sections throughout this volume Vincent Brümmer describes how he came to pay attention to the various themes dealt with in his writings and explains why he came to deal with them in the ways he did Illustrations of Faith; Eight Plain Sermons, by One of the Writers of the "Tracts for the Christian Seasons."
