Mitchell,2013-07-18 When this book was originally published in 1957 there had been lively debates on the air and in the press about the bearing of modern philosophy upon Christianity but there had been relatively little sustained discussion of the subject This book of essays was the product of a small group of Oxford philosophers and theologians who had met and talked informally for some years before writing it It is an attempt to discuss with care and candour some of the problems raised for Christian belief by contemporary analytical philosophy In asking the questions raised this book makes articulate the perplexities of many intelligent people both believers and unbelievers The contributors concentrate on the way such concepts as God Revelation the Soul Grace are actually used rather than asserting or denying some very general theory of meaning For the Life of the World (Theology for the Life of the World) Miroslav Volf,Matthew

Croasmun,2019-01-22 Christianity Today 2020 Book Award Award of Merit Theology Ethics Outreach 2020 Recommended Resource of the Year Theology and Biblical Studies The question of what makes life worth living is more vital now than ever In today s pluralistic postsecular world universal values are dismissed as mere matters of private opinion and the question of what constitutes flourishing life for ourselves our neighbors and the planet as a whole is neglected in our universities our churches and our culture at large Although we increasingly have technology to do almost anything we have little sense of what is truly worth accomplishing In this provocative new contribution to public theology world renowned theologian Miroslav Volf named America s New Public Intellectual by Scot McKnight on his Jesus Creed blog and Matthew Croasmun explain that the intellectual tools needed to rescue us from our present malaise and meet our new cultural challenge are the tools of theology A renewal of theology is crucial to help us articulate compelling visions of the good life find our way through the maze of contested questions of value and answer the fundamental question of what makes life worth living

Monotheism and Faith in God Ian G. Wallis,2020-12-24 After offering a brief overview of the role of faith within Judaism Christianity and Islam an interdisciplinary analysis of faith belief belief systems and the act of believing is undertaken The debate over the nature of doctrine between George Lindbeck and Alister McGrath brings into focus four ways in which beliefs can be employed expressive interpretative formative and referential relational An analysis of monotheistic belief ensues which demonstrates how it can function meaningfully in each of these modes including the last where insights from phenomenology and relational ontology as well as philosophical theology favour a participatory approach in which God is encountered not as an object of investigation but as that transcendent Other whose worship is the fulfilment of human being

The study concludes by highlighting convergences between the nature of faith presented in the initial scriptural overview and that developed throughout the rest of the study

Tracing the Contours of Faith Wayne Fehr, 2024-09-18 This book is addressed to Christian believers who are feeling the ambiguities and challenges of a life of faith Many of them may be uncertain about the meaning of the faith which they profess The familiar words that they hear in sermons and prayers seem at times to belong to a reality far removed from the actual world they live in They need to discover a meaning of their faith that they can relate to their own life experience and their general knowledge of the world This book is a collection of brief essays written in response to specific questions about the Christian faith's vision of reality The questions addressed here have arisen out of the experience of ordinary Christians trying to make sense of their faith Some are asking about particular Church words Some are expressing difficulties in believing Some are probing the paradoxes of Christian existence The author responds as a professional theologian and priest writing in a non technical way for fellow believers His purpose is to make the best insights of sound theology available to them to minister to their faith life Although many of the essays are limited in scope there is a coherent understanding of the Christian faith that underlies all of them Each essay is simply articulating part of that understanding in response to a specific question

Radical Theology and Emerging Christianity Katharine Sarah Moody, 2016-03-03 The theological turn in continental philosophy and the turn to Paul in political philosophy have occasioned a return to radical theology a tradition whose philosophical heritage can be traced to the death of God announced in the work of Nietzsche and Hegel John D Caputo's deconstructive theology and Slavoj Žižek's materialist theology are two radical theologies that explore what it might mean to pass through the death of God and to abandon this experience as specifically Christian Radical Theology and Emerging Christianity demonstrates how these theologies are transforming everyday religious practices through an examination of the work of Peter Rollins and Kester Brewin two figures at the radical margins of a contemporary expression of Western religiosity called emerging Christianity The author uses her analysis of all four figures to argue that deconstructive practices can enable religious communities to become part of a wider materialist collective in which the death of God continues to resonate Pushing the methodological boundaries of philosophy of religion by examining religious practices as the site of philosophical signification the book challenges scholars and practitioners alike to a new and more demanding dialogue between theory and practice

Secular Faith Vincent William Lloyd, Elliot A. Ratzman, 2011-01-01 Is faith a necessary virtue in the contemporary world May it be or must it be detached from religious commitment What do genealogies of the secular tell us about faith Does religion need secular faith Secular Faith brings together leading and emerging scholars to reflect on the apparent paradox of secular faith Ranging over anthropology religious studies political science history and literature from Muslims in China to Pentecostals in South Africa to a prison chapel in Texas this collection of essays is as engaging and accessible as it is penetrating and rigorous Communism was once labeled the god that failed Like Christianity Communism involves faith in a superhuman endeavor conversion myth discipline and salvation and from the perspective of secular liberalism both are unjustified and false In recent years scholars have begun to investigate whether secularism is itself based on faith in a god that failed or is failing Nevertheless many still embrace such a faith finding in the spirit of democracy an ethos of eternal renewal Secular Faith enters and broadens this conversation interrogating secular faith in a global context tapping new theoretical resources and grappling provocatively with the tragedies and opportunities of today s profane pantheon of beliefs LIST OF ESSAYS AND THEIR CONTRIBUTORS 1 Uncool Passion Nietzsche Meets the Pentecostals Jean Comaroff 21 2 The Secular Bad Faith of Harry Thieriault the Bishop of Tellus Joshua Dubler 44 3 Darwin s Dogs Animals Animism and the Problem of Religion David Chidester 76 4 IHave Seen Miracles in My Life W E B Du Bois and the Religious Limits of Secularism Edward J Blum 102 5 Democracy Piety and Faith AReading of Dewey s Religious Naturalism Melvin Rogers 126 6 Faith in the Time of Postsocialism Cindy Huang 153 7 Literary Enchantment and Literary Opposition from Hume to Scott Colin Jager 168 8 Imagined Communities Holistic Histories and Secular Faith Michael Saler 197 9 Interreligious Dialogue and Cosmopolitan Faith Adam K Webb 226

Faith seeking understanding Nico Vorster, Frederik van Niekerk, 2023-03-01 How did it all begin How do we even start to engage the differences between creation narratives in the Christian Bible and modern scientific theory The authors of this book explore hermeneutic approaches and developments in biblical studies to set the scene for a religious approach This approach is open to the possibility that a literalist approach to Scripture is in fact the most unjustifiable reading of the Bible This may profoundly affect how we view God the cosmos and even ourselves To be able to read the Bible from the perspective of an open present and future paves the way for suppressed uncertainties to be liberated This paves the way for humankind to freely question all things without being enslaved by imposed religious dogma This is not to say that religion has served its purpose but it is far from it With the rise of technological advancements come other social and anthropological problems not to mention the challenge we face on a global scale with climate change et cetera Just as we dare to peek over the edge of a future without religion the authors bring us back to the fundamental teachings of faith traditions Christianity in particular They remind us that the solutions to these challenges are to be found in us becoming better humans Becoming better humans brings us back into the arena of faith traditions When technology may lead to social disconnection and narcissism religion calls for love of self and neighbour Where greed inspired advancements threaten the future of our planet religion teaches us to be in relationship with our environment and to be custodians of it
