Literature Mike Cadden, Karen Coats, Roberta Seelinger Trites, 2020-04-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching classic and contemporary young adult YA literature and texts about growing to adulthood. Addresses issues of selecting classroom texts building cultural awareness responding to censorship and reading both emotionally and critically. Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in literature education and library science. Text-Dependent Questions, Grades K-5 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Heather Anderson, Marisol Thayre, 2014-09-02 Fisher Frey's answer to close and critical reading. Learn the best ways to use text dependent questions as scaffolds during close reading and the big understandings they yield. But that's just for starters. Fisher and Frey also include illustrative video texts and questions cross curricular examples and an online facilitator's guide making the two volumes of TDQ a potent professional development tool across all of K-12. The genius of TDQ is the way Fisher and Frey break down the process into four cognitive pathways. What does the text say? How does the text work? What does the text mean? What does the text inspire you to do. Promotional

Screen Industries Paul Grainge, Catherine Johnson, 2015-03-27 From the trailers and promos that surround film and television to the ads and brand videos that are sought out and shared promotional media have become a central part of contemporary screen life. Promotional Screen Industries is the first book to explore the sector responsible for this thriving area of media production. In a wide ranging analysis Paul Grainge and Catherine Johnson explore the intermediaries advertising agencies television promotion specialists movie trailer houses digital design companies that compete and collaborate in the fluid fast moving world of promotional screen work. Through interview based fieldwork with companies and practitioners based in the UK US and China Promotional Screen Industries encourages us to see promotion as a professional and creative discipline with its own opportunities and challenges Outlining how shifts in the digital media environment have unsettled the boundaries of promotion and content the authors provide new insight into the sector work strategies and imaginaries of contemporary screen promotion With case studies on mobile communication television film and live events this timely book offers a compelling examination of the industrial configurations and media forms such as ads apps promos trailers digital shorts branded entertainment and experiential media that define promotional screen culture at the beginning of the twenty first century Environmental Economics and Ecosystem Services Randall Bluffstone,2025-02-07

Environmental Economics and Ecosystem Services provides a rigorous yet accessible introduction to environmental economics using ecosystem services as the underlying framework Assuming no prior knowledge of economics and using a conversational writing style the focus is on exploring society s linkages with the environment and how economics can help solve key environmental problems Structured in three parts the book first introduces readers to the key theories in environmental economics and ecosystem services and then explores the challenges of conservation The final section examines environmental policy options such as cap and trade behavioral nudges community based natural resource management and carbon taxes There is a strong international focus throughout the book with real life examples taken from North America Europe Asia Africa and other regions Students are supported by a range of pedagogical features including chapter objectives chapter summaries discussion questions and further reading suggestions In addition the book offers worked examples analytical problems and Challenge Yourself boxes to develop critical thinking skills Lecture slides and answers to questions for discussion and practice problems are available for instructors This is the ideal text for introductory courses in environmental economics ecological economics economics of sustainability environmental management environmental policy and ecosystem services Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler,2017-08-15 Finalist for the 2017 National Jewish Book Award in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience presented by the Jewish Book Council Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God s image among others
