Non-Motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa Winnie V. Mitullah, Marianne Vanderschuren, Meleckidzedek Khayesi, 2017-07-14 What challenges do pedestrians and cyclists face in cities of the developing world What opportunities do these cities have to provide for walking and cycling Based on in depth research conducted in Cape Town South Africa Dar es Salaam Tanzania and Nairobi Kenya this book explores these questions by presenting work on walking and cycling travel behaviour the status of road safety in these cities as well as an analysis of the infrastructure for walking and cycling and the workings of the institutions responsible for planning for these modes The book also presents case studies relating to particular opportunities and challenges such as the development and evaluation of walking bus interventions and the opportunities micro simulation of pedestrian interventions offers within a data scarce environment Non motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa demonstrates that transport and urban planning remains situated in a logic of automobile dependent transport planning and global city development This logic of practice does not pay adequate attention to walking and cycling It argues that a significant shift in both policy as well as political commitment is needed so as to prioritize walking and cycling as strategies for sustainable transport policy in urban Africa This book will be a key text for practitioners and policy makers working in planning transport policy and urban development in Africa as well as students and scholars of African studies development studies urban geography transport studies and sustainable development The Higher Education Institutions Handbook ,2012 Church, State and Society in Kenya Galia Sabar,2012-12-06 This volume offers a debate on the role of Christianity in post colonial Kenya charting the role of the church state and society in the transformation of Kenya and the relationship between the three It shows how the church initiated health education and economic activities showing it to be a major instrument of transformation An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock,2017-03-27 In twentieth century Kenya age and gender were powerful cultural and political forces that animated household and generational relationships They also shaped East Africans contact with and influence on emergent colonial and global ideas about age and masculinity Kenyan men and boys came of age achieving their manhood through changing rites of passage and access to new outlets such as town life crime anticolonial violence and nationalism And as they did the colonial government appropriated masculinity and maturity as means of statecraft and control In An Uncertain Age Paul Ocobock positions age and gender at the heart of everyday life and state building in Kenya He excavates in unprecedented ways how the evolving concept of youth motivated and energized colonial power and the movements against it exploring the masculinities boys and young men debated and performed as they crisscrossed the colony in search of wages or took the Mau Mau oath Yet he also considers how British officials own ideas about masculinity shaped not only young African men s ideas about manhood but the very nature of colonial rule An Uncertain Age joins a growing number of histories that have begun to break down monolithic male identities to push the historiographies of Kenya and empire into new territory East Africa Seminar and Workshop on Remote Sensing of Natural Resources and Environment ,1975 African Activists of the Twentieth Century Hugh Macmillan,Tabitha Kanogo,Robert R.
