Education in Africa Gideon Boadu, Charles Adabo Oppong, 2024-07-12 This collection brings together African scholars in Africa and the diaspora to contribute to scholarly debates about critical issues in history teaching and learning in African schools The book contributes to filling the gap in knowledge on African history associated pedagogies and practices and its consequent effects on research and the declining popularity of history in African Schools Specifically the volume a examines current trends and practices in history education in African schools b unveils the challenges and subtleties of teaching the next generation of teachers and students and c examines classroom practices and opportunities for engagement with historical concepts in African schools The book adds a much needed African voice to the international history education literature and contribute to strengthening the place of history teaching and learning in Africa College Knowledge David T. Conley, 2008-01-28 Although more and more students have the test scores and transcripts to get into college far too many are struggling once they get there These students are surprised to find that college coursework demands so much more of them than high school For the first time they are asked to think deeply write extensively document assertions solve non routine problems apply concepts and accept unvarnished critiques of their work College Knowledge confronts this problem by looking at the disconnect between what high schools do and what colleges expect and proposes a solution by identifying what students need to know and be able to do in order to succeed The book is based on an extensive three year project

sponsored by the Association of American Universities in partnership with The Pew Charitable Trusts This landmark research identified what it takes to succeed in entry level university courses Based on the project s findings and interviews with students faculty and staff this groundbreaking book delineates the cognitive skills and subject area knowledge that college bound students need to master in order to succeed in today s colleges and universities These Standards for Success cover the major subject areas of English mathematics natural sciences social sciences second languages and the arts
