Queer Crimes & Criminal Justice Mithilesh Narayan Bhatt, 2022-06-01 The Queer Sexual minority which interalia includes lesbian gay bisexual and transgender hereinafter LGBT people is not a new phenomenon in today s scenario LGBT share a particular experience of their own sexual desires as potentially directed toward a person of the same gender They have transformed these experiences desires and practices into a social identity a sexual orientation which serves as a marker of individual selves and of a group This study shows that discrimination and abuse from homophobic transphobic world in which there is full permission to treat LGBT with cruelty makes it difficult for them to maintain a strong sense of well being and self esteem Study reveals that in India LGBT lives are more secretive as they are suppress to come out easily This book based on study concludes with some strong and viable recommendations which are requisite to ensure safe and proper place to LGBT people in society inculcating humane approach into laws and the criminal justice system Education and awareness programmes through various means and various places can bring positive changes Note T F does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Confronting Homophobia in Europe Luca Trappolin, Alessandro Gasparini, Robert Wintemute, 2011-12-22 Homophobia exists in many different forms across Europe Member States offer uneven levels of legal protection for lesbian and gay rights at the same time the social meanings and practices relating to homosexuality are culturally distinct and intersect in complex ways with gender class and ethnicity in different national contexts The essays in this volume illustrate the findings of a European project on homophobia and fundamental rights in which sociologists and legal experts have analysed the position in four Member States Italy Slovenia Hungary and the UK The first part of the book investigates the sociological dimensions of homophobia through qualitative methods involving both heterosexual and self defined lesbian and gay respondents including those in ethnic communities The aim is to understand how homophobia and homosexuality are defined and experienced in the everyday life of participants The second part is devoted to a legal analysis of how homophobia is reproduced in law and how it is confronted with law The analysis examines statute and case law soft law administrative practices the discussion of bills within parliamentary committees and decisions of public authorities Among the areas discussed are hate crimes and hate speech education at all levels free movement immigration and asylum and cross border reproductive services Please note that this book is also available as a free PDF download For further information please click on the link below www.citidive.eu/en/rapporti_e_prodotti

Hate Crime Neil Chakraborti, Jon Garland, 2015-03-18 Hate crime is a particularly pernicious form of criminal behaviour that has significant impacts upon victims their families and wider communities In this substantially revised and updated edition the book examines the nature extent and harms of hate crime and the effectiveness of criminal justice responses to it It covers racist religiously motivated homophobic disablist and transphobic hate crime as well as other forms of targeted victimisation such as gendered hostility elder abuse attacks upon alternative subcultures and violence against sex workers and the homeless The book also assesses the complexities and controversies surrounding hate crime legislation and policy making as well as the continuing challenges associated with the policing of hate The second edition features expanded discussions of international perspectives and contemporary topics such as online hate and cyberbullying as well as numerous case studies covering issues such as lone wolf extremists Islamophobia asylum seekers and the far right The book contains a range of links to online material that accompany the extensive lists of further reading in each chapter

Queering Conflict Marian Duggan, 2016-05-23 Queering Conflict offers a unique culturally specific analysis into the ways in which homophobia in Northern Ireland has been informed and sustained during the latter half of the twentieth century This book takes the failure of the British Government to extend the 1967 Sexual Offences Act to Northern Ireland as its central point to demonstrate the subtle but important differences governing attitudes towards homosexuality in Northern Ireland Both homophobia and hate crimes are shown to be situated within the framework of Northern Ireland's socio-political history as well as part of an overall culture of violence which existed as a result of the Troubles Duggan shows how the influence of moral and religious conservatism born out of sectarian divisions led to homophobia becoming an integral part of community cohesion and identity formation Decades of political instability led to the marginalization of rights for lesbians and gay men but the peace process has led to the development of a discourse of equality which is slowly allowing sexual minorities to situate themselves within the new Northern Ireland

Over the Rainbow: Money, Class and Homophobia Nicola Field, 2016-06-29 First published in 1995 Nicola Field's Over the Rainbow confronts the political contradictions in the LGBT movement and contains one of the earliest first hand accounts from the frontlines of Lesbians and Gays Support the Miners featured in the hit film Pride Written at a time when LGBT people enjoyed increased visibility but faced continued discrimination and assault from conservative governments Over the Rainbow sets an agenda for resistance rooted in class politics and shatters the myth of a unified LGBT community Including fresh material this expanded edition considers the impact of Pride and the challenges ahead for LGBT activism in the 21st century Nicola Field an original member of LGSM is a London based writer artist and activist She has written for Diva Socialist Review and Ambit exhibited at the V and spoken on political platforms internationally
