Quality Peace Peter Wallensteen, 2015-10-06 In Quality Peace leading peace researcher Peter Wallensteen offers a broad analysis of peacebuilding isolating what does and not work when settling conflicts The book uses statistical analysis to compare two war outcomes negotiated settlement and victory in the post Cold War era Wallensteen finds that if peace is to last three conditions must be met a losing party must retain its dignity security and the rule of law must be ensured for all and the time horizon for the settlement must be long enough to ensure a sense of normalcy Wallensteen breaks down the components of all of these conditions and applies them to interstate conflicts civil wars in which rebels are aiming to take over the entire state and separatist rebellions He also delves into the issue of world order and the significance of major power relations for local peace efforts Thus the work provides a remarkable understanding of how different types of war outcomes deal with post war conditions Sharply argued and comprehensive Quality Peace will invigorate peace research and stimulate peace practice becoming an authoritative work in the field

The Trouble with the Congo Séverine Autesserre, 2010-06-14 The Trouble with the Congo suggests a new explanation for international peacebuilding failures in civil wars Drawing from more than 330 interviews and a year and a half of field research it develops a case study of the international intervention during the Democratic Republic of the Congo s unsuccessful transition from war to peace and democracy 2003 2006 Grassroots rivalries over land resources and political power motivated widespread violence However a dominant peacebuilding culture shaped the intervention strategy in a way that precluded action on local conflicts ultimately dooming the international efforts to end the deadliest conflict since World War II Most international actors interpreted continued fighting as the consequence of national and regional tensions alone UN staff and diplomats viewed intervention at the macro levels as their only legitimate responsibility The dominant culture constructed local peacebuilding as such an unimportant unfamiliar and unmanageable task that neither shocking events nor resistance from select individuals could convince international actors to reevaluate their understanding of violence and intervention

The Political Economy of Peacemaking Achim Wennmann, 2010-12-14 This book focuses on the economic dimensions of peace processes and examines the opportunities and constraints for assisting negotiated exits out of conflict Various works have addressed the economic characteristics and consequences of armed conflicts over the past two decades including issues such as blood diamonds natural resource wars economically motivated armed violence self financing conflict or the complicity of companies and state elites in conflict economies However rather than treating these issues as obstacles for peace this book explores whether they can be opportunities for peacemaking by adopting a political economy perspective The book looks at income sharing from natural resources as an opportunity for forward looking peacemaking strategies and the implications of deal making in situations in which war economies and insecurity provide strongmen with disproportionate political and economic power The book also highlights that peace processes are not necessarily about the rectification of a conflict s root causes but rather about what matters most to the main stakeholders at the moment when a peace process starts taking shape Finally efforts to establish a lasting peace need to go beyond the traditional set of actors associated with peace processes The strategic involvement of donor agencies companies and diaspora communities can strengthen forward looking peace processes The book will help both student and practitioner audiences to better understand armed conflicts and their belligerents optimize the planning and management of peace initiatives and shape expectations in peace agreements It will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict studies development studies International Political Economy and International Relations in general Hope Roy Anthony MBA,2023-09-21 Hope Where Can We Find It This book has laid down a number of hopeful stories with references from the Bible to some contemporaries of our times Notwithstanding the trials temptations or pain we may go through we can always hold onto the hope God has extended to us Believers in Christ and nonbelievers don t allow your yesterday to steal your today Your past cannot dictate your today and future That is what we call hope Hope backed by faith makes us certain of what we hope for and gives us proof of what we cannot envision So where can we find hope The answer is clear and simple We can only find hope in Jesus Christ Jesus did not come only to bring us salvation but he s our only hope too We have hope because Jesus has forgiven us our sins and has further converted all of us into his icon as children of the father Jesus is hope He finds us rest when there s no hope Yes my soul find rest in God my Hope comes from him Truly he is my rock and my salvation he is my fortress I will not be shaken My salvation and my honor depend on God he is my mighty rock my refuge Psalms 62 5 7 Have you ever bothered to read into the promises of God to mankind Hope is found in all the promises God has given his children You cannot find Hope anywhere except in Jesus Christ alone His promises are yes and amen and he does not take his words back nor change his mind God is not human that he should lie not a human being that he should change his mind Does he speak and then not act Does he promise and not fulfill Numbers 23 19 Hope is found in the promises God has given us so why do you doubt the promises of God We doubt it because his timing is not ours The Scripture says in James 1 6 If we doubt while we ask we will not receive anything from Him because we are unsteady He who doubts is like a wave of the sea blown and tossed by the wind As salvation is found in no one else but in Christ so is hope It s found in no other but in Christ Jesus Keep your hope alive in Jesus not in man
