Polaschek, 2013-11-13 This book contributes to the growing literature on the biopic genre by outlining and exploring the conventions of the postfeminist biopic It does so by analyzing recent films about the lives of famous women including Sylvia Plath Frida Kahlo Virginia Woolf and Jane Austen

Luciferic Verses Eric Cunningham, 2023-02-07 It is a significant momentous fact that in the third millennium before Christ an incarnation of Lucifer in the flesh actually took place in the east of Asia And from this incarnation of Lucifer in the flesh for this being became a teacher there went forth what is described as the pre Christian pagan culture that still survived in the gnosis of the earliest Christian centuries Rudolf Steiner The Influences of Lucifer and Ahriman In the West today Laozi who lived sometime between the 6th and 4th centuries BC is perhaps the best known along with Confucius ancient Chinese philosopher owing to numerous modern renderings of his Daodejing or Tao Te Ching Eric Cunningham relates the substance of Laozi's classic work to modern philosophers and thinkers especially Rudolf Steiner and his esoteric cosmology and philosophy drawing significant and surprising parallels and contrasts with regard to Steiner's modern path of inner development and to aspects of popular culture In doing so he also sheds light on the evolution of consciousness and the universality of Laozi's wisdom of more than two millennia ago Cunningham combines a new translation of the Chinese classic Daodejing with a unique interpretation of the Dao for today innovatively employing perspectives of Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy interwoven with esoteric world history Inspirations for this singular reading of the Daodejing includes the suggestion by contemporary esoteric scholars that the mythical Yellow Emperor of Chinese history was a human incarnation of the spirit called Lucifer in the West This argument has been used to explain the ways in which demigods have inserted themselves into the earthly sphere to affect human evolution and history This theory resonates with certain readings of Genesis 6 and the idea that fallen angels have penetrated the human world and promoted the establishment of ruling classes and elite bloodlines throughout history The Luciferic Verses considers such claims from the perspective of esoteric history The author evaluates them on the basis of their convergence with kindred concepts including Zen enlightenment mysticism and the simulation hypothesis depicted in the Matrix films revealing the activities and historical implications of Gnosticism He makes a bold case for this common thread in various consciousness only concepts of mind from Plato and the ancient Skeptics to Daoism Zen and even the idealism of the 1960s leading directly to postmodern hypotheses of digital consciousness Today philosophers are exploring such topics as virtual reality and digital simulation as new ways of discussing the contours of reality suggested in the Daodejing Rather than leading us to a more humanistic vision of reality as the Daoist scholars traditionally maintain this theory of mind might be the root of a systematic anti humanist impulse that has operated throughout world history The Luciferic Verses offers fresh perspectives on Laoze's classic guide to life and inner development describing its relevance and meaning for today's cultural milieu and modern esoteric thought

Critical Perspectives on Teaching in the Multilingual University Ibrar Bhatt, Khawla Badwan, Mbulungeni Madiba, 2024-11-18 This book critically and reflectively engages with the Language Problem in the contemporary multilingual university. It paints a complex picture of the lived multilingual realities of teachers and students in universities across geographies such as Pakistan, Timor-Leste, South Korea, Bangladesh, Somaliland, Afghanistan, Fiji, Colombia, and the UK, including Northern Ireland, and focuses on three overall analytic themes: language and colonial epistemologies, language policies and practices, and language and research. Globalisation, global knowledge economy, and neoliberal governance have significantly impacted higher education by elevating colonial languages, particularly English, to a global academic lingua franca. Universities now collaborate and compete globally with English emerging as the dominant language for education and research. The imposition or uncritical adoption of English poses profound political, cultural, and epistemic challenges for those who have to use the language in everyday university administration, research, and teaching, and also intertwines with issues of race, gender, coloniality, and social class. This volume addresses this as higher education's multifaceted Language Problem, which requires interdisciplinary collaboration and critical debate, and ultimately aims towards understanding multilingualism in higher education across both the Global North and South. The contributions to this book continue to remind us of the coloniality of language and of the linguistic stratification that governs epistemological structures and power relations in the academy. It will be of interest to scholars, researchers, and practitioners of higher education, applied linguistics, education policy and politics, and sociology of education. This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Teaching in Higher Education.

Adaptation, Intermediality and the British Celebrity Biopic Márta Minier, Maddalena Pennacchia, 2016-03-23 Beginning with the premise that the biopic is a form of adaptation and an example of intermediality, this collection examines the multiplicity of source texts and the convergence of different media in this genre alongside the concurrent issues of fidelity and authenticity that accompany this form. The contributors focus on big and small screen biopics of British celebrities from the late twentieth and twenty-first centuries, attending to their myth-making and myth-breaking potential. Related topics are the contemporary British biopic's participation in the production and consumption of celebrated lives and the biopic's generic fluidity and hybridity as evidenced in its relationship to such forms as the bio-docudrama. Offering case studies of film biographies of literary and cultural icons, including Elizabeth I, Elizabeth II, Diana, Princess of Wales, John Lennon, Shakespeare, Jane Austen, Beau Brummell, Carrington, and Beatrix Potter, the essays address how British identity and heritage are interrogated in the re-telling and showing of these lives and how the reimagining of famous lives for the screen is influenced by recent processes of manufacturing celebrity.
