to Heaven in Part One he uses a different approach The approach in Part One although it sounds dominantly autobiographical the author once in blue moon though also utilised his creative and imaginary writing skills for the sake of emphasis or clarity of the picture of both the actual and possible phenomena in his past be it dialogues conversations or whatever incidents Obviously a detailed or graphic memories some of the conversations and some of the incidents which transpired during those past decades at times may not have been as fresh as the time they took place The author tried his best to remember all that he could remember to make his account not only a complete story but also an interesting story to read At the end of both Part One and Two of the book the author provides an opportunity for the reader to just as he himself did at the age of nineteen consider placing their faith in Jesus Christ and accept Him as their personal Lord and Saviour too
