

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Democratic Evaluation and Democracy Donna Podems, 2017-02-01 Democratic evaluation brings a way of thinking about evaluation s role in society and in particular its role in strengthening social justice Yet the reality of applying it and what happens when it is applied particularly outside the West is unclear Set in South Africa a newly formed democracy in Southern Africa the book affords an in depth journey that immerses a reader into the realities of evaluation and its relation to democracy The book starts with the broader introductory chapters that set the scene for more detailed ones which bring thorough insights into national government local government and civil societies experience of evaluation democratic evaluation and their understanding of how it contributes to strengthening democracy or not A teaching case the book concludes by providing guiding questions that encourage reflection discussion and learning that ultimately aims to inform practice and theory

How to Navigate Life Belle Liang, PhD, Timothy Klein, LCSW, 2022-08-02 An essential guide to tackling what students families and educators can do now to cut through stress and performance pressure and find a path to purpose Today s college bound kids are stressed anxious and navigating demands in their lives unimaginable to a previous generation They re performance machines hitting the benchmarks they re supposed to in order to reach the next tier of a relentless ladder Then their mental and physical exhaustion carries over right into first jobs What have traditionally been considered the best years of life have become the beaten down years of life Belle Liang and Timothy Klein devote their careers both to counseling individual students and to cutting through the daily pressures to show a better way a framework and set of questions to find kids true north what really turns them on in life and how to harness the core qualities that reveal allowing them to choose a course of study a college and a career Even the gentlest parents and teachers tend to play into pervasive societal pressure for students to PERFORM And when we take the foot off the gas we beg the kids to just figure out what their PASSION is Neither is a recipe for mental or physical health or ironically for performance or passion How to Navigate Life shows that successful human beings instead tap into their PURPOSE the why behind the what and how Best of all purpose is a completely translatable quality to every aspect of life from first jobs to last jobs and everything in between

Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Felix Maringe, Martin Prew, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the books chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Educations present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years SWYK on STAAR Reading/Writing Gr. 4, Parent/Teacher Edition
