Brown,2003-10-15 Ever since its emergence in colonial era Cuba Afro Cuban Santer a or Lucum has displayed a complex dynamic of continuity and change in its institutions rituals and iconography In Santer a Enthroned David H Brown combines art history cultural anthropology and ethnohistory to show how Africans and their descendants have developed novel forms of religious practice in the face of relentless oppression Focusing on the royal throne as a potent metaphor in Santer a belief and practice Brown shows how negotiation among ideologically competing interests have shaped the religion s symbols rituals and institutions from the nineteenth century to the present Rich case studies of change in Cuba and the United States including a New Jersey temple and South Carolina s Oyotunji Village reveal patterns of innovation similar to those found among rival Yoruba kingdoms in Nigeria Throughout Brown argues for a theoretical perspective on culture as a field of potential strategies and usable pasts that actors draw upon to craft new forms and identities a perspective that will be invaluable to all students of the African Diaspora American Acemy of Religion Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion Analytical Descriptive Category Voodoo and Afro-Caribbean Paganism Lilith Dorsey,2005 Few religions are as misunderstood as Afro Caribbean traditions like Voodoo Yoruba Candomble Shango Santeria and Obeah Even the most wide ranging books about Paganism rarely include a discussion of the African earth religions Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean Debbie Lee-DiStefano,Luisa Marcela Ossa,2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities
