Richard Hurd, 1739-1762 Richard Hurd, 1995 A model edition of the early correspondence of one of George III's favourite bishops ARCHIVES Richard Hurd is best known to ecclesiastical historians as one of George III's favourite bishops who was offered and declined the archbishopric of Canterbury These letters therefore illuminate the early career of one of the most prominent clerics of the late eighteenth century The letters begin in 1739 just after Hurd had graduated B A at Emmanuel College Cambridge They chart his gradual climb up the ladder of ecclesiastical preferment through his time as Fellow at Emmanuel and end with him settled in the comfortable country rectory of Thurcaston in Leicestershire Hurd had a wide circle of correspondents He became a close friend of William Warburton Bishop of Gloucester perhaps the most prominent controversialist of the period He was also a member of a literary circle which included the poets Thomas Gray and William Mason Indeed Hurd himself is well known to students of English literature as the author of Letters on Chivalry and Romance and as a significant figure among the so called pre romantics Hurd's letters reveal the full range of his interests from theology and university politics through literature to painting and sculpture This edition therefore not only tells us about Hurd's early life and career but also provides a valuable insight into the social life of the Anglican clergy in the eighteenth century

To Express the Ineffable Cynthia Y. Aalders,2009-04-01 Anne Steele 1717 1778 was one of the most well known and best loved hymn writers of the eighteenth century and her hymns remained exceedingly popular until late in the nineteenth century being reprinted regularly in hymnbooks throughout Britain and North America She was the first major woman hymn writer as well as the most popular Baptist hymn writer in the history of the church Despite this she has been largely neglected as a subject of academic enquiry until now This book aims to elucidate Steele s spirituality and to clarify her unique contribution to eighteenth century hymnody It takes an interdisciplinary approach setting Steele s devotional expression in its theological literary and historical contexts and providing comparison to other eighteenth century figures It uses archival sources to reconstruct her life and work offers a close reading of her verse and concludes that Steele made a significant and as yet underrated contribution to eighteenth century devotional expression The Works of the English Poets, from Chaucer to Cowper: Glover, Whitehead, Jago, Brooke, Scott, Mickle, Jenys ,1810 The Works of the English Poets, from Chaucer to Cowper;; Glover, Whitehead, Jago, Brooke, Scott, Mickle, Jenyns Samuel Johnson,1810
