Myth and the Sacred in the Poetry of Guillevic Stella Harvey, 2023-11-20 The sacred occupies a central place in the poetry of Guillevic who described himself as a materialist religious This study informed by anthropological and psychoanalytical thought examines the evolution of this aspect of his oeuvre from Terraqu 1942 through to the poet's last works and focuses in particular on the relation between the sacred and the mother figure A semiotic approach is used for close textual analysis of key poems Guillevic's poetic endeavour is conceived as an archaeological quest whereby the presence of the archaic within the domain of the real is disclosed and mythical patterns emerge The re-enactment of the cosmogony the performance of ritual and the process of mourning all crucial to poetic creativity itself are identified as motivating forces through which the poet seeks reparation of the mother This study will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as to teachers of French literature and will provide a useful introduction to those who may be unfamiliar with the unique voice of this major 20th century poet fragmentary writing in the work of the French novelist critic and thinker Maurice Blanchot 1907 2003 Maurice Blanchot on Poetry and Narrative Kevin Hart, 2023-05-18 Blanchot and his writings on three major poets Mallarmé Hermlin and Char provide a decisive new point of departure for English language criticism of his philosophical writings on narrative in this study by leading Blanchot scholar Kevin Hart Connecting his work to later leading figures of 20th century French philosophy including Emmanuel Levinas Simone Weil and Jacques Derrida Hart highlights the importance of Jewish philosophy and political thought to his overall conception of literature Chapters on community and negation reveal Blanchot's emphasis on the relationship between narrative and politics over the more commonly connected narrative and aesthetics By fully discussing Blanchot's elusive concept of the Outside for the first time this book progresses scholarly understandings of his entire oeuvre further This central concept engages Franz Rosenzweig's work on Abrahamic faiths enabling a reckoning on the role of suffering and literature in the wake of the Shoah with significant implications for Jewish studies more generally

Framing French Culture Natalie Edwards, Ben McCann, 2015 Throughout this book the concept of framing is used to look at art photography scientific drawings and cinema as visually constituted spatially bounded productions The way these genres relate to that which exists beyond the frame by means of plastic chemically transposed pencil sketched or moving images allows us to decipher the particular language of the visual and at the same time circumscribe the dialectic between presence and absence that is proper to all visual media Yet these kinds of re framing owe their existence to the ruptures and upheavals that marked the demise of certain discursive systems in the past announcing the emergence of others that were in turn overturned Maurice Blanchot and the Literature of Transgression John Gregg, 1994-03-21 In this book the first in English devoted exclusively to Maurice Blanchot John Gregg examines the problematic interaction between the two forms of discourse critical and fictional that comprise this writer's hybrid oeuvre The result is a lucid introduction to the thought of one of the most important figures on the French intellectual scene of the past half century Gregg organizes his discussion around the notion of transgression which Blanchot himself took over from Georges Bataille most palpably in his interpretation of the myth of Orpheus as a paradigm capable of accounting for the relationships that exist in the textual economies formed by author work and reader Chapters on the critical work address such issues as Blanchot's ambivalent attitude toward the speculative dialectic of Hegelianism his thematization of literature's involvement with death and the mythical and Biblical figures he uses to portray the acts of reading and writing Gregg also performs extended close readings of two representative works of fiction Le Traité de la subjectivité and L'Attente l'oubli in an effort to trace Blanchot's evolution as a creator of narratives and to ascertain how his fiction can be seen as constituting a mise en oeuvre of the concerns he treats in his criticism The book concludes with an assessment of Blanchot's place in the recent history of French critical theory
