Last Train from Berlin W. T. Tyler, 2025-06-25 In novels such as The Ants of God and Rogue's March W T Tyler has earned a reputation as one of our very best authors Whether writing about dictators on the African bush the machinations of the Kremlin or the equally mystifying antics of Washington's officialdom Tyler views our global and national affairs with irony pitch perfect realism and mordant insight in to the hubris and folly of great and lesser men alike In The Last Train from Berlin Tyler weaves together the tragedies of two men's lives one American one Russian to produce what may be the most powerful indictment of and most searching elegy to the tragic waste of the four decade long Cold War When Frank Dudley a longtime Agency man languishing in the twilight of his career vanishes without a trace a junior officer Kevin Corkey new to the CIA and unsure he belongs there among the policy mandarins and black ops cowboys is assigned the case Has the missing man met with foul play Or has Dudley a disgruntled member of the old school and the subject of polite contempt though still a man who knows where a great many skeletons lie buried hatched a scheme for revenge against those who have passed him by The answer one young Corkey and the reader will learn only at the end of this gripping tale is as profound complex and tragic as the history of the covert war between our century's two greatest superpowers Treating issues of fidelity and betrayal exile and alienation Last Train from Berlin is a memorable achievement Last Trains Charles Loft, 2013-03-27 The debate about Dr Richard Beeching will rage until the Second Coming and probably beyond But in Charles Loft's careful examination of the Beeching Report we have as fine a study as we are going to possess in the meantime Peter Hennessy Loft's great strength is his judiciousness He understands the political processes and assesses them fair mindedely And his verdict

will I suspect hold up better than any of Beeching's judgements. Matthew Engel, Financial Times. Prepare to be impressed, shocked and saddened. This is undoubtedly one of the best books of the year, a riveting read. Railways Illustrated. Lucid to the point, thought provoking at every turn. Last Trains is a volume that everyone should read before making judgements about the rail closures of the Sixties. Heritage Railway. Thoughtful and well researched analysis. Edinburgh Evening News. During the course of the 1950s, England lost confidence in its rulers and convinced itself it must modernise. The failing steam powered local railways run by Colonel Blimp symbolised everything that was wrong with the country; surely the future lay in motorways and high speed express trains. Along came Dr Beeching with his diagnosis and suddenly branch line Britain was gone for ever. The debate about the Beeching cuts has raged ever since. In this superbly researched examination, Charles Loft exposes the political failures that bankrupted the railways and lays bare the increasing alienation of bureaucrats from the public they were trying to serve. The result is a fascinating study of a nation grappling to come to terms with modernity.

Drawing on the voices of atomic bomb survivors and the new science of forensic archaeology, Charles Pellegrino describes the events and the aftermath of two days in August when nuclear devices detonated over Japan, changing life on Earth forever. To Hell and Back offers readers a stunning, you-are-there time capsule wrapped in elegant prose. Charles Pellegrino's scientific authority and close relationship with the A-bomb survivors make his account the most gripping and authoritative ever written. At the narrative's core are eyewitness accounts of those who experienced the atomic explosions firsthand: the Japanese civilians on the ground. As the first city targeted, Hiroshima is the focus of most histories. Pellegrino gives equal weight to the bombing of Nagasaki, symbolized by the thirty people who are known to have fled Hiroshima for Nagasaki where they arrived just in time to survive the second bomb. One of them, Tsutomu Yamaguchi, is the only person who experienced the full effects of both cataclysms within Ground Zero. The second time the blast effects were diverted around the stairwell behind which Yamaguchi's office conference was convened, placing him and few others in a shock cocoon that offered protection while the entire building disappeared around them. Pellegrino weaves spellbinding stories together within an illustrated narrative that challenges the official report showing exactly what happened in Hiroshima and Nagasaki and why. Also available from compatible vendors is an enhanced e-book version containing never before seen video clips of the survivors, their descendants and the cities as they are today. Filmed by the author during his research in Japan, these 18 videos are placed throughout the text, taking readers beyond the page and offering an eye-opening

Kafka's Last Trial: The Case of a Literary Legacy Benjamin Balint, 2018-09-18 Winner of the 2020 Sami Rohr Prize for Jewish Literature. Dramatic and illuminating. Raises momentous questions about nationality religion literature and even the Holocaust. Adam Kirsch The Atlantic. When Franz Kafka died in 1924 his loyal friend Max Brod could not bring himself to fulfill Kafka's last instruction to burn his remaining manuscripts. Instead Brod devoted his life to championing Kafka's work rescuing his legacy from both obscurity and physical destruction. Nearly a century later an international legal battle erupted to determine which country could claim ownership: the Jewish state where Kafka dreamed of living or Germany where Kafka's three sisters perished in the Holocaust. Benjamin Balint offers a gripping account of the controversial trial in Israeli courts brimming with dilemmas legal ethical and political that determined the fate of Kafka's manuscripts. Journal of the United States Artillery, 1945 Life, 1926 The Monthly Musical Record, 1882

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2016-08-29 The third edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary American audience. A selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing. Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays. For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before. A number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources. The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience. Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated essayists of the modern era from James Baldwin Susan Sontag Joan Didion and Annie Dillard to Eula Biss and Ta Nehisi Coates. The anthology remains broad in its thematic coverage but certain themes receive special emphasis notably issues of race class and culture in twenty first century America. For the new edition the headnotes have been expanded providing students with more information as to the context in which each piece was written. Questions and suggestions for discussion have been moved online to the instructor website. Life Death Jacques Derrida, 2023-06-19 The seventh in our series of Derrida's seminars Life Death provides interdisciplinary reflections on the relationship of life and death now in paperback One of Jacques Derrida's most provocative works Life Death deconstructs a deeply rooted dichotomy of Western thought life and death In rethinking the relationship between life and death Derrida undertakes a multi disciplinary analysis of a range of topics across philosophy linguistics and the life sciences Derrida gave this seminar over fourteen sessions between 1975 and 1976 at the cole normale sup rieure in Paris to prepare students for the agr gation a notoriously competitive exam The theme for the exam that year was Life and Death but Derrida made a critical modification to the title by dropping the coordinating conjunction The resulting title of Life Death poses a philosophical question about the close relationship between life and death Through close readings of Freudian psychoanalysis the philosophy of Nietzsche and Heidegger French geneticist Fran ois Jacob and epistemologist Georges Canguilhem Derrida argues that death must be considered neither as the opposite of life nor as the truth or fulfillment of it but rather as that which both limits life and makes it possible Derrida thus not only questions traditional understandings of the relationship between life and death but also ultimately develops a new way of thinking about what he calls life death
