

Activity: Greater Than Eight? Later Middle Ages, 1250-1350

Objectives: Analyze the role of religious institutions in the development of the English Parliament. Present and discuss the Great Charter.

1. In which place (England, France, and the Holy Roman Empire) did kings:

 - a. create groups called Great Councils during the Middle Ages? Why was the development of these councils important for the future of England as a constitutional monarchy after Henry II's reign? How long did these councils exist? How did kings restrict themselves from the monarch's absolute power while accepting change?

2. What was the Magna Carta? Why was it important? Why did it become an important document necessary to establish the principle that everyone is subject to the law, whether king, noble, or commoner? Through it, individuals also fight against and the rights of the king.
3. What was the reason of the legislative body of medieval England? Parliament.
4. What were the causes and effects of the Hundred Years' War? France, through repeated victories by both monarchs, nobles, and bourgeoisie, the new political the French Monarchy. Military Parliament was first power, the population was increased by new plagues, and the Black Death, and economic recovery of the country was.
5. Why do you think the War of the Roses? What was the result? The Hundred Years' War increased the power of monarchs and the War of the Roses started. The war was a result of the power struggle between the two royal houses of the Plantagenets and the Lancastrians. The war ended in 1485 with the death of Richard III, the last Yorkist king, and the beginning of the Tudor dynasty.
