Alfred Loisy and the Making of History of Religions Annelies Lannoy, 2020-08-10 This monograph studies the professionalization of History of religions as an academic discipline in late 19th and early 20th century France and Europe Its common thread is the work of the French Modernist priest and later Professor of History of religions at the Collège de France Alfred Loisy 1857 1940 who participated in many of the most topical debates among French and international historians of religions Unlike his well studied Modernist theology Loisy's writings on comparative religion and his rich interactions with famous scholars like F Cumont M Mauss or J G Frazer remain largely unknown This monograph is the first to paint a comprehensive picture of his career as a historian of religions before and after his excommunication in 1908 Through a contextual analysis of publications by Loisy and contemporaries and a large corpus of private correspondence it illuminates the scientification of the discipline between 1890 1920 and its deep entanglement with religion politics and society Particular attention is also given to the role of national and transnational scholarly networks and the way they controlled the theoretical and institutional frameworks for studying the history of religions Soziologie - Sociology in the German-Speaking World Betina Hollstein, Rainer Greshoff, Uwe Schimank, Anja Weiß, 2021-02-22 This book provides the first systematic overview of German sociology today Thirty four chapters review current trends relate them to international discussions and discuss perspectives for future research The contributions span the whole range of sociological research topics from social inequality to the sociology of body and space addressing pressing questions in sociological theory and innovative research methods TOC Introduction Culture Uta Karstein and Monika Wohlrab Sahr Demography and Aging François H pflinger Economic Sociology Andrea Maurer Education and Socialization Matthias Grundmann Environment Anita Engels Europe Monika Eigm ller Family and Intimate Relationships Dirk Konietzka Michael Feldhaus Michaela Kreyenfeld and Heike Trappe Felt Body Sports Medicine and Media Robert Gugutzer and Claudia Peter Gender Paula Irene Villa and Sabine Hark Globalization and Transnationalization Anja Wei Global South Eva Gerharz and Gilberto Rescher History of Sociology Stephan Moebius Life Course Johannes Huinink and Betina Hollstein Media and Communication Andreas Hepp Microsociology Rainer Sch tzeichel Migration Ludger Pries Mixed Methods and Multimethod Research Felix Knappertsbusch Bettina Langfeldt and Udo Kelle Organization Raimund Hasse Political Sociology J rn Lamla Qualitative Methods Betina Hollstein and Nils C Kumkar Quantitative Methods Alice Barth and J rg Blasius Religion Matthias Koenig Science and Higher Education Anna Kosm tzky and Georg Kr cken Social Inequalities Empirical Focus Gunnar Otte Mara Boehle and Katharina Kuni en Social Inequalities Theoretical Focus Thomas Schwinn Social Movements Thomas Kern Social Networks Roger H u ling Social Policy Birgit Pfau Effinger and Christopher Grages Social Problems G nter Albrecht Social Theory Wolfgang Ludwig Schneider Society Uwe Schimank Space Urban Rural Territorial Martina L w Technology and Innovation Werner Rammert Work and Labor Brigitte Aulenbacher and Johanna Grubner List of Contributors Index Brill's Companion to Classics and Early Anthropology Emily

Varto,2018-07-17 The chapters in Brill's Companion to Classics and Early Anthropology explore key points of interaction between classics and anthropology from the eighteenth to the mid twentieth century Ancient Greece and Rome played varying roles in early anthropological thinking from the observations of colonial officials and missionaries through the ethnography and evolutionary ethnology of the late nineteenth century and into the professionalized social sciences of the twentieth century The chapters illuminate these roles and uncover an intellectual history of fission and fusion exposing common interests and opposing methodologies shared theories and conflicting datasets close collaborations and adversarial estrangements In augmenting and reevaluating this history the volume offers a new and nuanced picture of the early formative relationship between the two disciplines

Lévi-Strauss Emmanuelle Loyer,2019-01-18 Academic writer figure of melancholy aesthete Claude Lévi Strauss 1908-2009 not only transformed his academic discipline he also profoundly changed the way that we view ourselves and the world around us In this award winning biography historian Emmanuelle Loyer recounts Lévi Strauss's childhood in an assimilated Jewish household his promising student years as well as his first forays into political and intellectual movements As a young professor Lévi Strauss left Paris in 1935 for São Paulo to teach sociology His rugged expeditions into the Brazilian hinterland where he discovered the Amerindian Other made him into an anthropologist The racial laws of the Vichy regime would force him to leave France yet again this time for the USA in 1941 where he became Professor Claude Lévi Strauss to avoid confusion with the jeans manufacturer Lévi Strauss's return to France after the war ushered in the period during which he produced his greatest works several decades of intense labour in which he reinvented anthropology establishing it as a discipline that offered a new view on the world In 1955 Tristes Tropiques offered indisputable proof of this the world over During those years Lévi Strauss became something of a French national monument as well as a celebrity intellectual of global renown But he always claimed his perspective was a view from afar enabling him to deliver incisive and subversive diagnoses of our waning modernity Loyer's outstanding biography tells the story of a true intellectual adventurer whose unforgettable voice invites us to rethink questions of the human and the meaning of progress She portrays Lévi Strauss less as a modern than as our own great and disquieted contemporary

Terms of Exchange Ian Merkel,2022-05-06 A collective intellectual biography that sheds new light on the Annales school structuralism and racial democracy Would the most recognizable ideas in the French social sciences have developed without the influence of Brazilian intellectuals While any study of Brazilian social sciences acknowledges the influence of French scholars Ian Merkel argues the reverse is also true the French social sciences were profoundly marked by Brazilian intellectual thought particularly through the University of São Paulo Through the idea of the cluster Merkel traces the intertwined networks of Claude Lévi Strauss Fernand Braudel Roger Bastide and Pierre Monbeig as they overlapped at USP and engaged with Brazilian scholars such as Mário de Andrade Gilberto Freyre and Caio Prado Jr Through this collective intellectual biography of Brazilian and French social sciences Terms of Exchange reveals connections that shed new light on the Annales school structuralism and racial democracy even as it prompts us to revisit established thinking on the process of knowledge formation through fieldwork and intellectual exchange At a time when canons are being rewritten this book reframes the history of modern social scientific thought Calvinus Pastor Ecclesiae Herman J. Selderhuis,Arnold Huijgen,2016-08-15 This volume contains the collection of papers presented at the 11th International Congress on Calvin Research that took place in Zurich in 2014 While many colleagues of Calvin addressed him in their letters as Pastor Ecclesiae Pastor of the Church this is also the position he held when he passed away 450 years before the congress in Zurich took place The first part of the book consists of the plenary papers In the second part the seminars held at the Congress are published and the third part consists of a selection of short papers Mana: A History of a Western Category Nicolas Meylan,2017-07-10 In Mana A History of a Western Category Nicolas Meylan proposes a critical account of Western imaginations of mana a word belonging originally to Oceanic languages but borrowed by European languages in which it acquired the meaning supernatural power While mana is best known for its tenure in the disciplines studying religion Nicolas Meylan situates such academic uses in a wider context analyzing the ways Westerners conceptualized mana in the earlier colonial context as well as its mobilizations in the late 20th and early 21st centuries by video game designers and Neo Pagan witches This focus on various Western uses of mana allows for the critical investigation of the ways power has been mystified in conjunction with religion Rethinking Modern European Intellectual History Darrin M. McMahon,Samuel Moyn,2014-03 Modern European intellectual history is thriving as never before It has recovered from an era in which other trends like social and cultural history threatened to marginalize it But in spite of enjoying a contemporary renaissance the field has lost touch with the tradition of debating why and how to study ideas and thus lacks both a well articulated set of purposes and a range of arguments for exactly what it means to pursue those purposes This volume revives that tradition Recalling past attempts to showcase the diversity and differentiation of modern European intellectual history this volume also documents how much has changed in recent decades Some authors are much readier to defend a history of ideas practiced over the long term once the defining sin of the field Others go so far as to insist on how ideas are always open to reappropriation and reevaluation beyond their original contexts suggesting that it is an error to reduce the ideas to those contexts Others still argue that under threat from trends like social history intellectual historians have forsaken any attempt to resolve for themselves how ideas are socially embodied The volume also registers old and new trends in history that have affected the study of ideas including the history of science the history of academic disciplines the history of psychology and self international and global history and women s and gender history The Social Origins of Thought Johannes F.M. Schick,Mario Schmidt,Martin Zillinger,2022-03-11 By studying how different societies understand categories such as time and causality the Durkheimians decentered Western epistemology With contributions from philosophy sociology anthropology media studies and sinology this volume illustrates the interdisciplinarity and intellectual rigor of the category project which did not only stir controversies among contemporary scholars but paved the way for other theories exploring how the thoughts of individuals are prefigured by society and vice versa

Languages of Belief and Early Sociology in Nineteenth-Century France Michiel Van Dam, 2024-09-27 This book presents a new reading of the history of French social science and religion through an investigation of early sociology s techniques for narrating the category of belief The author argues that by looking at the history of social sciences in this manner we gain a deeper understanding of both our present debates on post secularity as well as our modernist past both of which were thoroughly shaped by their reflections and critiques on the notion of belief yet failed to enter into any sort of meaningful communication with each other This book seeks to rectify this failure by introducing the concept of belief languages an anthropological framework designed to historicize different discussions on belief and allow for their comparative description and analysis

Social Theory and Regional Studies in the Global Age Saïd Amir Arjomand, 2014-05-21 A pioneering approach to social theory that rectifies overreliance on Western historical experience of development and modernization In this pioneering volume leading international scholars argue for the development of a new approach to social theory that draws on regional studies for the conduct of comparative analysis in the global age Social Theory and Regional Studies in the Global Age moves beyond facile generalizations based on the historical experience of modernization in the West by highlighting differences rather than similarities and contrasts rather than commonalities and by examining civilizational processes and culturally specific developmental patterns distinctive of different world regions Essays combine comparative and historical sociology with civilizational analysis and the study of multiple and alternative modernities Different patterns of modernization are compared within the framework of global local compressed communication and interaction that results from globalization The introductory chapter puts the present effort in the context of the seminal work of three generations of comparative sociologists and what follows is a penetrating analysis of modernization and globality opening the way for rectifying the erasure of the historical experience of a very sizeable portion of humankind from the foundation of social theory

Les auteurs, tous deux psychiatres, l'un d'orientation psychanalytique, l'autre cognitive et comportementaliste, confrontent leur approche du patient. Ainsi de l'entretien clinique, la mise en place de solutions thérapeutiques, ils soulèvent les questions fondamentales auxquelles sont confrontés les psychothérapeutes. En effet, chaque cas part d'une rencontre avec un patient et d'un point de difficulté précis selon différents angles théoriques, en particulier psychanalytique ou cognitif et comportemental, de manière claire et didactique pour proposer des solutions directement applicables dans la pratique quotidienne. Cette démarche incite le lecteur à réfléchir sa pratique personnelle ou aux efforts de mise en pratique en répondant à ces questions puis à confronter ses propres tentatives de réponse à la conceptualisation et à l'argumentation proposées par les auteurs. Destin aux psychothérapeutes, cet ouvrage constitue un outil clair et pédagogique qui apporte des réponses concrètes au quotidien du thérapeute.
