Nested Identities Guntram Henrik Herb, David H. Kaplan, 1999 This groundbreaking work explores the vital importance of territory and space to any genuine understanding of nationalism and identity Too often the contributors argue national identity is analyzed apart from the lands that are integral to its formation as territory is seen as a commodity to be brokered rather than as central to a group s self definition This volume combines theoretical insights with structured case studies on how national identity manifests itself in space and at different geographical scales
