Organization defines intellectual property as creations of the mind which includes inventions literary and creative works as well as symbols names pictures and designs utilized in commercial transactions The organization recognizes two different categories of intellectual property namely Industrial and copyright and establishes a difference between the two The first kind of intellectual property is often the sort that is held by enterprises inventions industrial designs etc while the second type of intellectual property relates to creative productions such as original literature or music This book takes an industrial approach to the concept of intellectual property concentrating on the legal actions and preventive safety measures that a company can take to preserve its intellectual property both now and in the future This book takes a methodical approach to discussing how to file for and defend various types of intellectual property as well as the associated techno legal concepts It brings together the fundamental ideas behind all different kinds of intellectual property rights IPR as well as the procedures for registering them and the regulations governing their use The protection of intellectual assets is more challenging than the protection of other kinds of properties because intellectual properties are intangible It is common practice to use the word intellectual property in legal contexts in order to protect the rights of artists and inventors because of the monetary connotations of the term By granting artists and inventors exclusive rights to their work for a certain amount of time Intellectual Property Rights IPR serve to both promote and protect those who engage in creative endeavors Legal Skills Lisa Cherkassky, Julia Cressey, Christopher Gale, 2011-04-01 A comprehensive and accessible guide to the academic and practical skills needed in the study of law including essential techniques for legal research reasoning writing advocacy negotiation interviewing and advising Also features an extensive section on career development The Indian Legal Profession in the Age of Globalization David B. for students academics and legal professionals to discuss topical legal matters that challenge the status quo At the beginning of this year lay the fantasy of newness presenting an opportunity to do great things But as I reflect on the journey leading to this publication I understand that the 2020 edition of the PSLR had an engine that ran on hope faith dedication perseverance commitment and hard work Our predecessors had a vision to create a boldly outlined legacy for the PSLR they spearheaded the setting up of a system that would last the lifespan of the PSLR Today some 13 years after the first edition of the PSLR South Africa the continent and the world at large are on the cusp of a new era socially economically and politically When my journey as Editor in Chief commenced I imagined the PSLR as a ship whose captain was myself Customarily it is easy to be a captain of a ship in calm seas but unlike most of my predecessors I have had to be the captain of a ship through the heftiest of storms The world was not truly prepared to face challenges presented by the Covid 19 let alone the PSLR In the wake of the 4IR and this new age of technology sailing this ship to success was still a heavy task to complete It is therefore with great honour to have been able to successfully complete the task for which we the 14th cohort of the Editorial Board were called for We have upheld the esteemed reputations that have been left by our predecessors Fittingly I wish to applaud my team for their inspiring commitment outstanding contribution and service in maintaining the elevated standard of the PSLR For indeed it is a publication par excellence Amidst the storms we have spearheaded the establishment of a free floating PSLR Collection in the OR Tambo Law Library This collection is dedicated to house all published PSLR editions dating since the inception of the PSLR in 2007 We have established and strengthened relations with other Law Faculties in the country and even beyond We published the very first special edition of the PSLR a focused edition that covers a critical issue brought before the South African Law Deans Association the Decolonisation of Legal Education We have established a system by which all authors who publish with us ought to have an ORCID iD We have adopted internal regulations that outline the principles that govern the Editorial Board We have spearheaded the adoption and implementation of a policy that forces us to comply with DHET Standards in order to be a DHET Accredited Journal so as to encourage and foster a student culture of critical research Jostina Mtshweni Clayton Mtshweni Lucas Berto Mateus Stephine Mashilo and Lerato Mashilo words cannot begin to express my gratitude for all the support you have given me throughout this journey Thank you for keeping me sane through one of the toughest times of my publishing career Thank you for the endless amount of support and the unconditional love you give me always You are the power oil that kept this engine running all by the sufficient grace of God I hereby pass the baton and entrust the next Editor in Chief with the difficult task of running faster and running a better marathon than myself and my predecessors To you future author I implore you to start writing for the water does not flow until the faucet is turned on To you the reader Jurgen Zwecker was right enjoy the read without fear to question what is in front of you for that is the only way we as scholars grow Simon Motshweni Editor in Chief 2020 Table of Contents Editors note by Simon Motshweni Statutory utility rights to realise access to services as a characteristic of adequate housing by
