Rushdoony written for the Chalcedon Report between 1965 and 2001 along with several transcripts of his recorded talks The large volume The Roots of Reconstruction only contained his Chalcedon Report essays up until 1985 so most of the essays included in Faith Action were unavailable to readers for many years until now In order to make the author's knowledge more accessible this three volume collection features some of the most extensive indexing we've ever done including a General Index a History Index a Scripture Index a Works Cited Index and a Chalcedon Report Directory A total of 183 pages of indexing This handsome set of books is a must have for any serious library The central theme of this collection of essays is Christian Reconstruction which to Rushdoony meant the responsibility of Christian citizenship in the Kingdom of God For him his central drive behind his research and writing was to move men to faith and action Rushdoony was primarily an essayist who vigorously and prolifically wrote on a multiplicity of subjects issues and disciplines Despite his being critical of both the contemporary church for its compromise and the humanistic state for its will to be as God these essays are replete with Rushdoony's
