Memo Agric Paper 1 Nov 2014:

Development Planning in South Africa John Reynolds, 2018-06-15 Celebrated as a beacon of democracy and reconciliation many people in South Africa continue to live in severe poverty particularly in the Eastern Cape Province Backed by the United Nations Development Programme the Eastern Cape s provincial government consequently launched an historically ambitious programme the Provincial Growth and Development Plan aimed at tackling the province s poverty unemployment and inequality over a ten year period in a radical policy overhaul Drawing on the author s first hand engagement with the planning process Development Planning in South Africa is an empirically rich study that utilises a strategic relational approach to explore the ways in which this unprecedented challenge was negotiated and eventually undermined by the South African state The first work of its kind the book provides an indispensable micro level study with profound implications for how state power is understood to be organised and expressed in state policy Relevant beyond South Africa to policy implementation in both developing and developed states globally the book is essential reading for students and scholars of government studies political economy development policy studies and social movements

Food Diversity Between Rights, Duties and Autonomies Alessandro Isoni, Michele Troisi, Maurizia Pierri, 2018-04-25 The book reflects on the issues concerning on the one hand the difficulty in feeding an ever increasing world population and on the other hand the need to build new productive systems able to protect the planet from overexploitation The concept of food diversity is a synthesis of diversities biodiversity of ecological sources of food supply socio territorial diversity and cultural diversity of food traditions In keeping with this transdisciplinary perspective the book collects a large number of contributions that examine firstly the relationships between agrobiodiversity rural sustainable systems and food diversity and secondly the issues concerning typicality food specialties food identities rural development and territorial communities Lastly it explores legal questions concerning the regulations aiming to protect both the food diversity and the right to food in the light of the political economic and social implications related to the problem of feeding the world population while at the same time respecting local communities rights especially in the developing countries The book collects the works of legal scholars agroecologists historians and sociologists from around the globe
