For most of her life Beatrice lacked self-confidence and struggled to control her emotions until she experienced a period of profound Spiritual Awakening that led to many positive changes some of which are still ongoing. Today she spreads the Word of God and uses her negative experiences to help others. A chosen disciple of God Beatrice Lotter is a Pastor from South Africa. Her whole life is a testimony to how a person can overcome challenging circumstances and obstacles. She is a daughter born out of wedlock whose name was later changed to Annemarie by the will of her stepfather's family. Nevertheless she rightfully took back what was hers her original identity. Over the years Beatrice has blossomed into a spiritual leader who helps others understand that they can get through any difficulties that come in their way just like she did. Despite the many hurdles she always managed to pick herself back up and move forward because even in dark places there is light. Today Beatrice encourages others to receive God's guidance and love and not surprisingly her name means she who brings happiness. God has given her a gift and it is indeed a blessing to be around her.

With original exercises and prompts for further reading that bridge the gap between the theoretical and how it might be put into practice the book is attentive to the multiple facets of the genre of nonfiction writing generally covering such topics as The writer reader contract How to embark on a thematic symbolic exploration of themes and incidents in your life How neuroscientific theory can inform our understanding of memory and recall and what happens to our memories when we remember them Character development and the ethics of writing about real people How constructing your identity in memoir offers a chance to push back against traditional structures That memoir might not be preservation of your past but a process of self-erasure How J M Coetzee's Autobiography trilogy challenges traditional biography By bringing together lived experience post-structuralist and postmodernist theories praxis and artistic vision as a unique approach to writing memoir this book encourages you to think the self how it is portrayed created erased and made strange through the process of writing and
