Stocks for All: People's Capitalism in the Twenty-First Century Petri Mäntysaari, 2021-12-31 Public stock markets are too small This book is an effort to rescue public stock markets in the EU and the US There should be more companies with publicly traded shares and more direct share ownership Anchored in a broad historical study of the regulation of stock markets and companies in Europe and the US the book proposes ways to create a new regulatory regime designed to help firms and facilitate people's capitalism Through its comparative and historical study of regulation and legal practices the book helps to understand the evolution of public stock markets from the nineteenth century to the present day The book identifies design principles that reflect prior regulation While continental European company law has produced many enduring design principles the recent regulation of stock markets in the EU and the US has failed to serve the needs of both firms and retail investors The book therefore proposes a new set of design principles to serve contemporary societal needs

Financial Markets and Institutions Frederic S. Mishkin, Stanley G. Eakins, 2006 Recognizing that students need more than an abstract description of financial markets and institutions as they train to become managers successfully working in or interacting with the financial service industry Mishkin and Eakins examine models and concepts through the eyes of a practicing financial manager to see not only why they matter but also how they are used in the real world In this way students learn to place themselves in the role of decision maker and envision how they might respond to problems and situations that will arise in their future careers This Fifth Edition boasts expanded coverage of valuation concepts more quantitative material and a streamlined finance focused presentation A careful examination of conflicts of interest a concentration on the impact of new technologies new data and refreshing examples all serve to enhance and illuminate important concepts
