MYP - New Directions Jeff Thompson, Judith Fabian, Mary Hayden, 2016-06-01 The new IB Middle Years Programme MYP curriculum for 11 to 16 year olds came into effect in September 2014 and will strengthen the IB's continuum of learning. This edited collection will provide support for all those involved in the current period of preparation for implementation of the new programme. The chapters are written by experienced practitioners from a range of relevant standpoints about different aspects of the MYP. MYP New Directions examines the changes to the programme that have been introduced as well as those that are currently in progress and highlights challenges and opportunities for the future. Contributors: Judith Fabian, Conrad Hughes, Alexandra Holland, Lance King, Marjorie Lope, Patricia Villegas, Gareth Hegarty, Hege Myhre, Michael Huber, Oyndrilla Mukherjee, Anthony Hemmens and Gillian Ashworth.

Human Resource Management at Work Mick Marchington, Adrian Wilkinson, Rory Donnelly, Anastasia Kynighou, 2025-03-03 Human Resource Management at Work is a comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of HRM covering everything HR students need to excel in their academic studies. This leading textbook is divided into four key parts. The first part of the book covers HRM strategy and the global context whilst Part Two discusses the role of HR professionals and line managers in the workplace and how the responsibilities for delivering effective HR varies in a changing world of work. Part Three has expert coverage of the key areas of HR including resourcing and talent management, learning and development, L D reward and employment relations. The final part examines the impact that HRM can have on business performance and also outlines the key knowledge and skills required to manage a business project. This updated edition now has coverage of artificial intelligence, HR ecosystems, equal value and pay ethics and the new approaches to project management. It also includes international real world examples, reflective practice activities to encourage critical thinking, exercises to help the consolidation of learning and explore further boxes to encourage wider reading. This book is for students taking the CIPD Level 7 qualification and is also for non CIPD accredited HR postgraduate students. Online supporting resources include an instructor's manual and lecture slides.

Educational Assessment Christine Harrison, Constant Leung, David Pepper, 2023-10-19 This book explores and builds on the extraordinary work of Professor Paul Black across assessment and pedagogy across the curriculum including STEM, humanities and social science subjects. This book explores the influence that Black has had within educational settings, focusing on interpretations of the work and scholarship he has achieved across a range of settings and on the ways scholars who have worked with him or been influenced by his ideas have developed their research and teaching. The contributions are presented under three thematic sections, each of which reflects a set of shared educational concerns and values drawing on the natural and social sciences and developments in public policy. These concerns and values, with their emphasis on teacher assessment, provide a basis for a strategic, informed and coherent response to challenges in education such as the cancellation of public examinations in the face of the Covid 19 pandemic.

Mineral Property Evaluation Richard L. Bullock, Scott Mernitz, 2017-12-01 Everything sums up what must be considered for a properly documented property evaluation Less than 30% of the projects that are developed in the minerals industry yield the return on investment that was projected from the project feasibility studies The tools described in this handbook will greatly improve the probability of meeting your projections and minimizing project execution capital cost blowout that has become so prevalent in this industry in recent years Mineral Property Evaluation provides guidelines to follow in performing mineral property feasibility and evaluation studies and due diligence and in preparing proper documents for bankable presentations It highlights the need for a consistent systematic methodology in performing evaluation and feasibility work The objective of a feasibility and evaluation study should be to assess the value of the undeveloped or developed mineral property and to convey these findings to the company that is considering applying technical and physical changes to bring the property into production of a mineral product The analysis needs to determine the net present worth returned to the company for investing in these changes and to reach that decision point as early as possible and with the least amount of money spent on the evaluation study All resources are not reserves nor are all minerals an ore The successful conclusion of any property evaluation depends on the development work and conclusions of the project team The handbook has a diverse audience Professionals in the minerals industry that perform mineral property evaluations Companies that have mineral properties and perform mineral property feasibility studies and evaluations or are buying properties based on property evaluation Financial institutions both domestic and overseas that finance or raise capital for the minerals industry Consulting firms and architectural and engineering contractors that utilize mineral property feasibility studies and need standards to follow And probably the most important the mining and geological engineering students and geology and economic geology students that need to learn the standards that they should follow throughout their careers

Education in a Federal UK John Furlong, Ingrid Lunt, 2019-10-23 Britain's two recent referenda on Brexit 2016 and on Scottish independence 2014 have raised in the public mind fundamental questions about the future of the UK It seems that for the first time the public the media and the political elite have woken up to the fact that in different parts of the UK there are different histories different aspirations and different imagined futures in relation to a whole range of vitally important political issues But what the public debate often fails to recognise is that in many areas of public life perhaps especially education the UK is already a federal state and in key respects has been so for many years The aim of this volume is therefore to take stock to try and capture what the current state of educational policy and practice is across the whole of the UK This has been achieved by commissioning two different papers from each of the four countries Wales Scotland Northern Ireland and England The first is an overview exploring the distinctive history principles and current policies of each country The second paper has been specifically chosen as a case study of a key policy that highlights the distinctiveness of each country the Foundation Phase for Wales assessment policy in Scotland shared education initiatives in Northern Ireland and higher education policy in England Taken together these eight papers give an important insight into the complexities of educational policy and practice across the whole of the UK today This volume was originally published as a special issue of Oxford Review of Education
