Inside/Outside Islamic Art and Architecture Saygin Salgirli, 2021-07-29 When we walk into a gallery we have a fairly good idea where the building begins and ends and inside while observing a painting we are equally confident in distinguishing between the painting proper and its frame and borders Yet things are often more complicated A building defines an exterior space just as much as an interior and what we perceive to be ornamental and marginal to a given painting may in fact be central to what it represents In this volume a simple question is presented instead of dichotomous separations between inside and outside or exterior and interior what other relationships can we think of The first book of its kind to grapple with this question Inside Outside Islamic Art and Architecture focuses on a wide spectrum of mediums and topics

Pickett, M.L. Cadenasso, Brian McGrath, 2013-01-13 The contributors to this volume propose strategies of urgent and vital importance that aim to make today's urban environments more resilient Resilience the ability of complex systems to adapt to changing conditions is a key frontier in ecological research and is especially relevant in creative urban design as urban areas exemplify complex systems With something approaching half of the world's population now residing in coastal urban zones many of which are vulnerable both to floods originating inland and rising sea levels making urban areas more robust in the face of environmental threats must be a policy ambition of the highest priority The complexity of urban areas results from their spatial heterogeneity their intertwined material and energy fluxes and the integration of social and natural processes All of these features can be altered by intentional planning and design The complex integrated suite of urban structures and processes together affect the adaptive resilience of urban systems but also presupposes that planners can intervene in positive ways As examples accumulate of linkage between sustainability and building landscape design such as the Shanghai Chemical Industrial Park and Toronto's Lower Don River area this book unites the ideas data and insights of ecologists and related scientists with those of urban designers It aims to integrate a formerly atomized dialog to help both disciplines promote urban resilience      Multimodality in the Built Environment Louise J. Ravelli, Robert J. McMurtrie, 2015-11-19 This book provides an extended exploration of the multimodal analysis of spatial three dimensional texts of the built environment culminating in a holistic approach termed Spatial Discourse Analysis SpDA Based on existing frameworks of multimodal analysis this book applies adapts and extends these frameworks to spatial texts The authors argue that choices in spatial design create meanings about what we perceive and how we can or should behave within spatial texts influence how we feel in and about those spaces and enable these texts to function as coherent wholes Importantly a spatial text once built is also a resource which is then used and an essential aspect of understanding these texts is to consider what users themselves contribute to the meaning potential of these texts The book takes the metafunctional approach familiar from Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL and foregrounds each metafunction in turn textual interpersonal experiential and logical in relation to the detailed analysis of a particular spatial text Integral Urbanism Nan Ellin, 2013-10-18 Integral Urbanism is an ambitious and forward looking theory of urbanism that offers a new model of urban life Nan Ellin's model stands as an antidote to the pervasive problems engendered by modern and postmodern urban planning and architecture sprawl anomie a pervasive culture and architecture of fear in cities and a disregard for environmental issues Instead of the reactive and escapist tendencies characterizing so much contemporary urban development Ellin champions an integral approach that reverses the fragmentation of our landscapes and lives through proactive design solutions Women Reclaiming the City Tigran Haas, 2023-04-04 The originality of Women Reclaiming the City lies not only in the variety of themes being presented but also in the variety of all these different highly respected women researchers This book is the first in which current societal themes revolving around urbanism architecture and city planning are put forth solely through female perspectives It reveals the importance of having female lenses on certain societal debates Twenty five leading female urban scholars draw on principles concepts and positions that are foundational to other frameworks and fields specifically critical studies indigenous and ethnic studies postcolonial theory queer theory feminist theory progressive urban theory social ecology urban planning and design architecture urban economics and urban social geography landscape urbanism new urbanism heritage management and urbanism political ecology and cultural studies to present alternatives to the current classical theories and conceptualizations that have failed to engage a truly intersectional analysis of dominant city and urban discourses policies and practices The book is intended for scholars of urban studies policy makers and city planning professionals Anatomy of Design Steven Heller, Mirko Illic, 2009-03-01 DIVA Anatomy of Design dissects fifty examples of graphic design piece by piece revealing an array of influences and inspirations These pieces represent contemporary artifacts that are well conceived finely crafted and filled with hidden treasures Some are overtly complex Others are so simple that it is hard to believe there's a storehouse of inspiration hidden underneath The selections include all kinds of design work including posters packages and more Each exhibit is selected for its ubiquity thematic import and aesthetic significance and every page shows how great work is derived from various inspirational and physical sources some well known some unknown Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa, Filipa Roseta, Joana Pestana Lages, Susana Couceiro da Costa, 2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference

Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe
