Key Concepts

Students will learn about the structure and function of the judicial branch.

Structure & Function

The judicial branch is responsible for interpreting the Constitution and laws. It is made up of the Supreme Court and lower federal courts. The Supreme Court is the highest court in the land and has the final say on all cases.

The judicial branch also has the power to declare laws unconstitutional. This is known as judicial review. The Supreme Court has the final say on whether a law is constitutional or not.

The Supreme Court's Judicial Review

Students will learn about the process of judicial review and how it is used to check the power of the other branches.

Working & Writing

Judicial Process

The judicial process is the way that cases are heard and decided by the courts. It starts with a complaint or lawsuit being filed in court. The case then goes through several steps, including discovery, trial, and appeal. The Supreme Court is the final step in the process.
