L'autre Face De La Lune Ecrits Sur Le Japon:

L'autre face de la lune Claude Lévi-Strauss, 2011 Pour qui aborde l'histoire non pas si j'ose dire par la face visible de la lune l'histoire de l'ancien monde depuis l'Egypte la Grèce et Rome mais par cette face cachée de la lune qui est celle du japonologue et de l'américaniste l'importance du Japon deviendrait aussi stratégique que celle de l'autre histoire celle du monde antique et de l'Europe des temps archaïques Il faudrait alors envisager que le Japon le plus ancien ait pu jouer le rôle d'une sorte de pont entre l'Europe et l'ensemble du Pacifique chargé pour lui et pour l'Europe de développer chacun de son côté des histoires symboliques tout la fois semblables et opposées un peu la façon de l'inversion des saisons de part et d'autre de l'équateur mais dans un autre registre et sur un autre axe C'est donc dans une perspective beaucoup plus vaste que le Japon peut nous sembler détenir certaines des clés maîtresses donnant accès au secteur qui reste encore le plus mystérieux du passé de l'humanité Claude Lévi-Strauss

The Other Face of the Moon Claude Lévi-Strauss, 2013-03-05

Gathering all of Claude Lévi-Strauss's writings on Japan this sustained meditation follows his dictum that to understand one's own culture one must see it from another's point of view For Lévi-Strauss Japan occupied a unique place among world cultures This English translation presents one of France's most public figures at his most personal

The Cultural Net Joachim Küpper, 2018-04-09 This volume offers a new theoretical approach to cultural production inspired by the metaphor of culture as a virtual network Following a thorough outline of this approach the theoretical framework is elucidated in a second part through examples drawn from early modern European drama A third and final part then presents a critical discussion of the concept of national culture and literature from its first formulation by Johann Gottfried Herder to its current developments including postcolonial studies

We Are All Cannibals Claude Lévi-Strauss, 2016-03-15 On Christmas Eve 1951 Santa Claus was hanged and then publicly burned outside of the Cathedral of Dijon in France That same decade ethnologists began to study the indigenous cultures of central New Guinea and found men and women affectionately consuming the flesh of the ones they loved Everyone calls what is not their own custom barbarism said Montaigne In these essays Claude L vi Strauss shows us behavior that is bizarre shocking and even revolting to outsiders but consistent with a people s culture and context These essays relate meat eating to cannibalism female circumcision to medically assisted reproduction and mythic thought to scientific thought They explore practices of incest and patriarchy nature worship versus man made material obsessions the perceived threat of art in various cultures and the innovations and limitations of secular thought L vi Strauss measures the short distance between complex and primitive societies and finds a shared madness in the ways we enact myth ritual and custom Yet he also locates a pure and persistent ethics that connects the center of Western civilization to far flung societies and forces a reckoning with outmoded ideas of morality and reason

Foucault's Orient Marnia Lazreg, 2017-10-01 Foucault lived in Tunisia for two years and travelled to Japan and Iran more than once Yet throughout his critical scholarship he insisted that the cultures of the Orient constitute the limit of Western rationality Using archival research supplemented by interviews with key scholars in Tunisia Japan and France this book examines the philosophical sources evolution as well as contradictions of Foucault s experience with non Western cultures Beyond tracing Foucault s journey into the world of otherness the book reveals the personal political as well as methodological effects of a radical conception of cultural difference that extolled the local over the cosmopolitan

Through a Nuclear Lens Hannah Holtzman, 2024-05-01 The Franco Japanese coproduction Hiroshima mon amour 1959 is one of the most important films for global art cinema and for the French New Wave In Through a Nuclear Lens Hannah Holtzman examines this film and the transnational cycle it has inspired as well as its legacy after the 2011 nuclear disaster at Fukushima Daiichi In a study that includes formal and theoretical analysis archival research and interviews Holtzman shows the emergence of a new kind of nuclear film one that attends to the everyday effects of nuclear disaster and its impact on our experience of space and time The focus on Franco Japanese exchange in cinema since the postwar period reveals a reorientation of the primarily aesthetic preoccupations in the tradition of Japonisme to center around technological and environmental concerns The book demonstrates how French filmmakers ever since Hiroshima mon amour have looked to Japan in part to better understand nuclear uncertainty in France

In Vivo Gabor Csepregi, 2019-04-30 The course of human life punctuated by unexpected and transformative moments is never uniform What are the characteristics of such life defining moments what responses do they evoke and how do they transform the lives of those who experience them In Vivo explores foundational questions and pivotal moments of the human experience engagement with a foreign culture the decision to break free from unfortunate experiences a generous action undertaken in the context of an otherwise regular day in terms of their life altering potential Through illustrative examples both real and fictional Csepregi reveals the primacy of personal feelings in shaping human life and demonstrates the formative power of spontaneity outside the traditional context of formal education These moments and particularly the way they disrupt ordinary temporal order Csepregi argues are the lived experiences of our vitality In an age

marked by increasing anxiety about the homogenizing tendencies of contemporary life In Vivo is timely and revelatory Informed by a range of philosophical thinking and examples from art music and literature it illustrates opportunities for meaningful reflection that are available to everyone and urges the reader to engage with them A History of Jesuit Missions in Japan Guillaume Alonge, 2023-12-13 In the aftermath of the religious crisis triggered by the Protestant Reformation the Catholic Church set out to conquer faithful in new territories The first missionaries to arrive in Japan were the Jesuits who were forced to adopt a different type of evangelization with a bottom up rather than a top down approach This volume shows that Japan turned out to be a land of experimentation and development of a global Catholicism as well as an unprecedented laboratory of encounter between political scientific and religious cultures in the age of the first globalization It analyzes the different conversion strategies developed by the Jesuit fathers toward various groups including samurai Buddhist bonzes and Japanese peasants A key step was the appropriation of sacred space by the missionaries first in a violent way with the construction of large crosses and the destruction of temples pagodas and pagan idols then through strategies more flexible and accommodating of replacing pre existing cultural practices To be attractive the Jesuit fathers had to compromise with local culture and spirituality but they were also forced in some way to simplify and modify their very way of understanding and living Christianity This book also reflects on the reasons for the failure of this ambitious Catholic conversion project the hostility of the Japanese ruling class the irreducibility of a different culture and spirituality but also if not above all the rise of internal rivalries in Catholicism between Jesuits Franciscans and Dominicans This book marks a significant contribution to the literature on the history of the Jesuits Catholic missions and Christianity in Japan Literary Transnationalism(s), 2018-10-16 Goethe in 1827 famously claimed that national literatures did not mean very much anymore and that the epoch of world literature was at hand Since the turn of the twenty first century in the so called transnational turn in literary studies interest in world literature and in how texts move beyond national or linguistic boundaries has peaked The authors of the 18 articles making up Literary Transnationalism s reflect on how literary texts move between cultures via translation adaptation and intertextual referencing thus entering the field of world literature The texts and subjects treated range from Caribbean American and Latin American literature to European migrant literatures from the uses of pseudo translations to the organizing principles of world histories of literature from the dissemination of knowledge in the middle ages to circulation of literary journals and series in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Contributors include amongst others Jean Bessi re Johan Callens Reindert Dhondt C sar Dom nguez Erica Durante Ottmar Ette Kathleen Gyssels Reine Meylaerts and Djelal Kadir Authors discussed comprise amongst others Carlos Fuentes Ernest Hemingway Edouard Glissant

Happiness and the Good Life in Japan Wolfram Manzenreiter, Barbara Holthus, 2017-03-27 Contemporary Japan is in a state of transition caused by the forces of globalization that are derailing its ailing economy stalemating the political establishment and generating alternative lifestyles and possibilities of the self Amongst this nascent change Japanese society is confronted with new challenges to answer the fundamental question of how to live a good life of meaning purpose and value This book based on extensive fieldwork and original research considers how specific groups of Japanese people view and strive for the pursuit of happiness It examines the importance of relationships family identity community and self fulfilment amongst other factors The book demonstrates how the act of balancing social norms and agency is at the root of the growing diversity of experiencing happiness in Japan today Critical Theory to Structuralism David Ingram,2014-09-11 Philosophy in the middle of the 20th Century between 1920 and 1968 responded to the cataclysmic events of the time Thinkers on the Right turned to authoritarian forms of nationalism in search of stable forms of collective identity will and purpose Thinkers on the Left promoted egalitarian forms of humanism under the banner of international communism Others saw these opposed tendencies as converging in the extinction of the individual and sought to retrieve the ideals of the Enlightenment in ways that critically acknowledged the contradictions of a liberal democracy racked by class cultural and racial conflict Key figures and movements discussed in this volume include Schmitt Adorno and the Frankfurt School Arendt Benjamin Bataille French Marxism Black Existentialism Saussure and Structuralism Levi Strauss Lacan and Late Pragmatism These individuals and schools of thought responded to this modernity crisis in different ways but largely focused on what they perceived to be liberal democracy s betrayal of its own rationalist ideals of freedom equality and fraternity Racisms Francisco Bethencourt,2014-01-19 A groundbreaking history of racism Racisms is the first comprehensive history of racism from the Crusades to the twentieth century Demonstrating that there is not one continuous tradition of racism Francisco Bethencourt shows that racism preceded any theories of race and must be viewed within the prism and context of social hierarchies and local conditions In this richly illustrated book Bethencourt argues that in its various aspects all racism has been triggered by political projects monopolizing specific economic and social resources Racisms focuses on the Western world but opens comparative views on ethnic discrimination and segregation in Asia and Africa Bethencourt looks at different forms of racism and explores instances of enslavement forced migration and ethnic cleansing while analyzing how practices of discrimination and segregation were defended This is a major interdisciplinary work that moves away from ideas of linear or innate racism and recasts our understanding of interethnic relations Capital and Ideology Thomas Piketty,2020-03-10 Thomas Piketty s Capital in the Twenty First Century showed that capitalism left to itself generates deepening inequality In this audacious follow up he challenges us to revolutionize how we think about ideology and history exposing the ideas that have sustained inequality since premodern times and outlining a fairer economic system In vivo. Une phénoménologie des moments décisifs de l'existence Gabor Csepregi,2020-10-06T00:00:00-04:00 In vivo explore des questions fondamentales et des moments cruciaux de l existence humaine l entr e en interaction avec une culture transg r la d cision de se sortir d une condition de vie routi n re ou malheureuse une action g n reuse pos e dans un contexte quotidien ordinaire en fonction de leur potentiel de transformation de l existence En recourant des illustrations tir es de la vie r elle et d uvres de fiction Gabor

Csepregi r v le le r le primordial des sentiments personnels dans le fa onnement de la vie humaine et d montre le pouvoir formateur de la spontan it en dehors du contexte traditionnel de l ducation formelle Ces moments et notamment la fa on dont ils perturbent l ordre temporel ordinaire constituent des exp riences v cues de notre vitalit Recourant un langage clair et pr cis In vivo captivera les philosophes et les intellectuels Csepregi engage un dialogue entre diverses traditions faisant appel aux meilleurs courants de plusieurs philosophies pour d velopper un point de vue unique Ga lle Fiasse Universit McGill
