

LAW ENFORCEMENT TELEPHONE INVESTIGATIONS RESOURCE GUIDE

– Cellular, Satellite & VoIP Phone Providers

STEP 1 - Determine the target phone service provider:

- NeuStar
(NPAC) Number Portability Administration Center <http://www.npac.com/lawenforcement/registration.shtml>
CODER: 0000000000 - obtain your own PIN from NeuStar by registering at the link listed above
Automated Number: (571) 434-5781 NeuStar HELP Line: (571) 434-5395

NOTE: If you query a number through NeuStar and it has 'NOT BEEN PORTED', check it through Fone Finder to determine the likely service provider.

- Fone Finder <http://www.fonefinder.net/>

TIP: To identify providers for "800" numbers, call (800) 747-3344 Option 1

STEP 2 – Determine if the case involves - “Exigent Circumstances” (e.g. Abduction, Missing Person at risk or Dangerous Fugitive)

If so, using the provider resource list, contact the provider and tell them: “We are investigating a case that we believe is an emergency involving immediate danger of death or serious bodily injury”. Do not explain the situation in detail - as they only need to have a reasonable belief that the situation involves immediate danger of death or serious injury. The provider will typically verify your information and then send you their Exigent Circumstance Request form via fax. A few providers require you to send your request via fax on official letterhead. Complete the form or the letter and fax it back. Some providers will require a valid Court Order to be submitted within 48 hours of the Exigent Circumstance Request.

TIP: If the target phone is roaming on another provider's network - complete the Exigent Circumstances process with the roaming provider to get the best and fastest results for call records and tower locations.

STEP 3 – Determine needed records & legal process required:

NOTE: Before submitting Subpoenas, Court Orders or Search Warrants, it is a good idea to contact the provider identified through the steps listed above and confirm that they are indeed the provider for the account. It is also recommended that you verify the provider's legal compliance process and contact information to avoid any delays or confusion.

- PRESERVATION LETTER: A preservation letter [USC 2703(b) (2)] should be sent to the provider via fax as soon as possible to preserve records before they are discarded and cannot be recovered. This is particularly an issue with text message and voice mail content which are generally only retained for 72 hours. A sample preservation letter is included on the last page of this guide.
- SUBPOENA: For basic transactional records (e.g. Subscriber account details, Billing Records or Account Notes) only a Subpoena is required. Submit the Subpoena via fax to the provider's Subpoena Compliance fax number. Call the provider to verify receipt!
- COURT ORDER: For detailed records (e.g. In-coming & Out-going Call Detail, Cell Tower Locations – including location “pings”, Text Message content, Voice Mail content and PEN Registers) a Court Order (or Search Warrant) is required. Submit the Court Order (or Search Warrant) via fax to the provider's Legal Compliance fax number. It is also a good idea to include a cover letter that includes your contact information, the target number and the specific records you are requesting and specify that you would like the records returned in an electronic format (e.g. Excel). Call the provider to verify receipt!
