Law Commission Report No 254:

Maudsley & Burn's Land Law Edward Hector Burn, John Cartwright, Ronald Harling Maudsley, 2009 The 9th edition of Maudsley and Burn's Land Law Cases and Materials continues to provide an essential reference work for students and practitioners It includes a wide range of extracts from cases statutes Law Commission reports and other literature which highlight the key issues to understand the present law and its continuing development      Land Registration and Title Security in the Digital Age David Grinlinton, Rod Thomas, 2020-04-07 This book examines the current state of and emerging issues in relation to the Torrens and other systems of land registration and the process of automation of land registration systems in jurisdictions where this is occurring worldwide It analyses the impacts of advances in digital technology in this area and includes contributions from a number of experts and leaders in this subject from a number of jurisdictions While it has an Australasian bias there are important chapters outlining current challenges and developments in Scotland England and Wales Ireland and the Netherlands The book will be relevant to those engaged in land registration and conveyancing processes including but not limited to property law practitioners and conveyancers academics in this field government and public policy experts law and property students and IT and IP experts especially those working on developing automated land registration systems      Secured Finance Law in China and Hong Kong Mark Williams, Haitian Lu, Chin Aun Ong, 2010-10-14 This book examines systematically the current systems of secured lending in China and Hong Kong where companies or individuals offer personal property as security for credit advanced by a lender Valid and enforceable security reduces the risk to the lender and so lowers the cost of credit to the borrower However the Hong Kong system being largely derived from English law is highly complex and in need of root and branch reform The forces of inaction have triumphed and valuable opportunities to create a modern rational and efficient system have been squandered In China on the other hand a completely new system has been created in the last twenty years which whilst it has various problems and defects has some notable advantages over the common law equivalent found in Hong Kong      Land Law Ben McFarlane, Nicholas Hopkins, Sarah Nield, 2020 Authoritative analytical and concise McFarlane Hopkins and Nield's Land Law provides succinct coverage on the core areas without sacrificing depth or detail The authors unique approach to land law arms students with the tools to apply an independent critical thought process to the content covered in classes and assessments      Common Law and Modern Society Mary Arden, 2015-12-17 Law is a lasting social institution but it must also be open to change How is law made and what prompts change How can society influence the law and how does the law respond to societal change The first volume of Shaping Tomorrow's Law examined human rights and European law In this second volume Mary Arden turns her attention to domestic law providing a judge's viewpoint on the roles of society government and the judiciary in the transformation and reform of the law The first section of Common Law and Modern Society explains what we mean by judge made law and shows how the law responds to the needs of a changing society

Adaptation may be in response to shifting values or in response to constitutional change This is demonstrated in chapters on assisted reproduction and assisted dying both modern concerns and a far older example that of the law on water which has been evolving over the centuries in response to society's changing demands The law also needs to reflect constitutional change as in the case of Welsh devolution The second section of the book looks at the necessary simplification of the law and systematic legal reform These tasks lie at the heart of the work of the Law Commission which celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2015 Drawing on her own experience as former Chairman of the Law Commission Mary Arden argues that statute law can be made simpler by codification and that the success of codification may vary depending on the field of law The final section looks ahead to tomorrow's judiciary The accountability of judges is a continuing area of discussion and this includes ensuring that the reasoning behind their decisions is understood by the relevant people Mary Arden goes on to argue that the vision for the judiciary today and tomorrow should be one of greater diversity in the widest sense This will help to ensure not only greater fairness and wider opportunity but also better decision making The book concludes with advice and encouragement for future legal professionals

New Perspectives on Land Registration Amy Goymour, Stephen Watterson, Martin Dixon, 2018-02-08 The Land Registration Act 2002 has been in force for almost fifteen years When enacted the legislation which replaced the Land Registration Act 1925 was intended to offer a clear and lasting framework for the registration of title to land in England and Wales However perhaps confounding the hopes of its drafters the legislation's interpretation and application has since generated many unanticipated problems which demand attention In this book's twenty chapters leading land law scholars Law Commissioners past and present judges and Registry lawyers unpick key technical controversies and expose underlying theoretical and policy concerns Core issues addressed in these chapters include the legitimate ambitions of registration regimes the nature and security of title afforded by registration the resolution of priority disputes affecting registered titles the relationship between the general law and the registration regime and new challenges presented by modern technological developments

Land Law Ben Hopkins, McFarlane (Nicholas), Nield, Sarah), 2024 Landmark Cases in Land Law Nigel Gravells, 2013-06-03 Landmark Cases in Land Law is the sixth volume in the Landmark Cases series of collected essays on leading cases previous volumes in the series having covered Restitution Contract Tort Equity and Family Law The eleven cases in this volume cover the period 1834 to 2011 although interestingly no fewer than six of the cases were decided or reported in the 1980s The names of the selected cases will be familiar to property lawyers However individually the essays provide a reappraisal of the cases from a wide range of perspectives focusing on their historical social or theoretical context highlighting previously neglected aspects and even questioning their perceived importance Collectively the essays explore several common themes that pervade the law of property the numerus clausus principle the conclusiveness of registration the desirability of certainty in the law and the central question of the enforceability of interests through changes in ownership of land This volume provides a collection of essays that will be of interest to academics

The Informal Constitution Abhinav Chandrachud, 2020-11-30 Enacted for historical reasons on 26 January 1950 the Constitution of India provided that the Supreme Court of India situated in New Delhi was to have one Chief Justice of India and not more than seven judges Today the Court has 33 judges in addition to the Chief Justice of India But who are these judges and where did they come from Its central thesis is that despite all established formal constitutional requirements there are three informal criteria which are used for appointing judges to the Supreme Court age seniority and diversity The author examines debates surrounding the Indian judicial system since the institution of the federal court during the British Raj This leads to a study of the political developments that resulted in the present collegium system of appointing judges to the Supreme Court of India Based on more than two dozen interviews personally conducted by the author with former judges of the Supreme Court of India this book uniquely brings to the fore the unwritten criteria that have determined the selection of judges to the highest court of law in this country for over six decades
