Law School Pre Entry Results 2015:

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world's legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers. This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines, countries and cultures document and analyse those changes. The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America, Western Europe, Latin America, Asia, Australia, North Africa and the Middle East, sub-Saharan Africa and former communist countries. These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions, the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship, changes in lawyer demography, rapidly growing numbers and the profession's efforts to retain control, the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality, ethnic diversity, legal education, the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation, the regulation of lawyers, structures of production, especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals, the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice, state funded legal aid and pro bono services. The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales, labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order.

Competition Law, Regulation and SMEs in the Asia-Pacific Michael T Schaper, 2017-03-09 Small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs) account for more than 90 per cent of all businesses in the Asia Pacific region, an area which is rapidly updating its competition laws and regulations to encourage greater entrepreneurship and open dynamic economies. Yet SMEs are almost invisible when those competition policies and laws are developed and enforced. SMEs are often quite different businesses than large multinational corporations, but their nature, significance and characteristics are often overlooked. This book seeks to rectify the relative neglect in research and policy discussions on the role of the SME sector in competition policy and law. Drawing on contributions from a wide range of competition regulators, lawyers, academics, consultants and advisers to the SME sector, it addresses such important issues as perceptions and views of small businesses about competition law, regulator engagement and education of the SME sector, the link between competition law and economic growth, franchising SMEs and competition law issues in enforcing competition law against SMEs, the role of Chinese family firms, trade professional and industry associations, country case studies from Vietnam, Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia, China, South Korea, Hong Kong SAR, Japan and the Pacific Islands.

Constraining the Court James B. Kelly, 2024-05-01 When the Supreme Court of Canada makes a decision that invalidates a statute it creates a constitutional moment But does that have a direct and observable impact on public policy Constraining the Court explores what happens when a statute involving a significant public policy issue French language rights in Quebec supervised consumption sites abortion or medical assistance in dying is declared unconstitutional James B Kelly examines the conditions under which Parliament or provincial territorial legislatures attempt to contain the policy impact of judicial invalidation and engage in non compliance without invoking the notwithstanding clause He considers the importance of the issue the unpopularity of a judicial decision the limited reach of a negative rights instrument such as the Charter the context of federalism and the mixture of public and private action behind any legislative response While the Supreme Court s importance cannot be denied this rigorous analysis convincingly concludes that a judicial decision does not necessarily determine a policy outcome
