Corley, Artemus Ward, Wendy L. Martinek, 2015-09-25 This text is a general introduction to American judicial process The authors cover the major institutions actors and processes that comprise the U S legal system viewed from a political science perspective Grounding their presentation in empirical social science terms the authors identify popular myths about the structure and processes of American law and courts and then contrast those myths with what really takes place Three unique elements of this myth versus reality framework are incorporated into each of the topical chapters 1 Myth versus Reality boxes that lay out the topics each chapter covers using the myths about each topic contrasted with the corresponding realities 2 Pop Culture boxes that provide students with popular examples from film television and music that tie in to chapter topics and engage student interest 3 How Do We Know boxes that discuss the methods of social scientific inquiry and debunk common myths about the judiciary and legal system Unlike other textbooks American Judicial Process emphasizes how pop culture portrays and often distorts the judicial process and how social science research is brought to bear to provide an accurate picture of law and courts In addition a rich companion website will include PowerPoint lectures suggested topics for papers and projects a test bank of objective questions for use by instructors and downloadable artwork from the book Students will have access to annotated web links and videos flash cards of key terms and a glossary

Development Aid—Populism and the End of the Neoliberal Agenda Viktor Jakupec, 2017-12-04 This volume examines the impact of the Trump presidency on development aid It starts out by describing the rise of national populism the political landscape and the reasons for rejection of the political establishment both under Trump and internationally Next it gives a historical political overview of development aid in the post WW II era and discusses the dominant Washington Consensus doctrine and its failure It then provides a critique of the Official Development Assistance ODA discourse and reviews the political economy of ODA the discourse and the conditionalities that are barriers to socio economic development The final chapters explore the question of Trumponomics as an alternative to the global neoliberal ODA and the potential impact of Trumponomics on ODA The book concludes with thoughts on the potential future directions for ODA within the ideals of Trumponomics and national populism

French Immigrants and Pioneers in the Making of America Marie-Pierre Le Hir, 2022-03-25 Americans have long had a rich if complicated relationship with France They adore all things French especially food and fashion They visit the country and learn the language Historically Americans have also been quick to blame France at certain times of international crisis and find fault with their handling of domestic issues Despite ups and downs the friendship between the countries remains very strong The author explains the strength of Franco American relations lies in the diplomatic ties that extend back to the founding of the United States but more importantly in the French DNA that is imprinted on American culture The French were the first Europeans to settle the regions now known as Florida Illinois Minnesota Iowa Wisconsin Missouri Kansas and Arkansas and Frenchman remained in Louisiana after the land was purchased by the United States This book explores the effects that France has had on American culture and why modern Americans of French descent are so fascinated by their ancestry

A Long Dark Night J. Michael Martinez, 2016-04-14 For a brief time following the end of the U S Civil War American political leaders had an opportunity slim to be sure but not beyond the realm of possibility to remake society so that black Americans and other persons of color could enjoy equal opportunity in civil and political life. It was not to be. With each passing year after the war and especially after Reconstruction ended during the 1870s, American society witnessed the evolution of a new white republic as national leaders abandoned the promise of Reconstruction and justified their racial biases based on political, economic, social, and religious values that supplanted the old North-South slavery abolitionist schism of the antebellum era. A Long Dark Night provides a sweeping history of this too often overlooked period of African American history that followed the collapse of Reconstruction from the beginnings of legal segregation through the end of World War II. Michael J. Martinez argues that the 1880s ushered in the dark night of the American Negro, a night so dark and so long that the better part of a century would elapse before sunlight broke through. Combining both a top-down perspective on crucial political issues and public policy decisions as well as a bottom-up discussion of the lives of black and white Americans between the 1880s and the 1940s, A Long Dark Night will be of interest to all readers seeking to better understand this crucial era that continues to resonate throughout American life today.

2015 U.S. Higher Education Faculty Awards, Vol. 2 Faculty Awards, 2015-12-29

FacultyAwards.org is the first and only university awards program in the United States based on faculty peer evaluation. Faculty Awards was created to recognize outstanding faculty members as viewed by their Faculty peers at colleges and universities across the United States. Faculty members voted through the 2014-2015 academic year for their peers at their academic departments and schools within a number of categories. Access to FacultyAwards.org to nominate and vote for Faculty was limited to university professors or faculty members at accredited U.S. institutions of higher education. Faculty members were nominated and voted for by other faculty members in their own academic departments and schools. We strove to maintain an accurate peer review process. Voting was not open to students or the public at large. In addition, faculty members voted for educators only at their own college or university. Winners for the 2014-2015 academic year in all departments and colleges across U.S. institutions of higher education were announced in March 2015 and are permanently archived at FacultyAwards.org as well as recognized in this 2015 print edition of the Faculty Awards Compendium. For the academic year 2014-2015, votes were cast to nominate and vote for Faculty members, and no self-voting was allowed to assure the integrity of the whole process. This volume of the Faculty Awards Compendium includes Faculty awardees within Business Education, Health Sciences, and Nursing, Law, Medicine, Political Science, and Public Affairs Disciplines for the 2014-2015 academic year. A total of 1216 winning Faculty members in 637 higher education institutions were determined after tallying the votes. We would like to thank all Faculty members who participated in the voting process and to wish all the Faculty awardees continued success in their academic endeavors. We look forward to resuming the voting process for the
